DR. R. TOLLER IN LINE FOR HIGH POSITION

Will Soon Become A Superintendent Of Hospital

PLANS ARE OUTLINED

To Shortly Assume A Temporary Supervisorship

A former member of the Mendocino State Hospital medical staff is in line for appointment as head of one of the State's insane hospitals, according to word out of Sacramento. Dr. Aaron Rosanoff, head of the state institutions, is anxious to have a new State Hospital superintendency created, the duties of the incumbent being to supervise all paroled ex-inmates and to have supervision of all social workers in state service. The position pays $370 a month and expenses.

Wants New Structure.

It is Dr. Rosanoff's intention to have another State Hospital built and, according to the story from the Capital, the man who is berthed into the job as supervisor of paroled inmates and social service workers will, when the new Hospital is erected, assume the position of superintendent of the to-be-created institution.

Dr. R. B. Toller Selected.

From the highest authority The Republican Press gets word the position has been offered Dr. R. B. Toller, now a resident member of the Napa State Hospital staff and a former popular and efficient member of the Mendocino State Hospital. Dr. Toller, while stationed at Talmage, married Miss Ethel Hagans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hagans of this city. Dr. and Mrs. Toller have been visitors here frequently since being transferred to Napa and everyone hereabouts will be glad of Dr. Toller's contemplated promotion.

2 CANDIDATES OPPOSING LEA

A Write-In Campaign Conducted By Two Northerners On

Ernest Mitchell, of Eureka, has been induced to allow his name to be presented to the voters of Congressional District No. 1 as a write-in candidate for Congress. He will oppose Congressman Clarence F. Lea. This action was taken at a meeting held in Ukiah recently when a movement was started to repeal the law whereby a candidate files on all party tickets.

Seeing The People.

In addition to the above another contender for Congressman Lea's job on a write-in campaign has appeared in the person of Frank S. Johnson, of Pepperwood. Mr. Johnson was in Ukiah Saturday and to The Republican Press he stated he was campaigning on a platform of "Americanism." Mr. Johnson is for having America belong to Americans. He is strong in demanding the "forgoten man" be not more forgotten than he is and is away out of step with the New Deal. "I have lived all my life in the mountains," said Mr. Johnson, "But I have kept abreast with the times." What Mr. Johnson believes should be done by Congress requires a large size page to set forth, but sprinkled through the paragraphs is a whole lot of patriotic expression and that is not a bad thing for any candidate to espouse, although it is not particularly popular with New Deal followers.

Draft Board Was Named For County

News of the appointment of the members of the Mendocino county draft board were announced Saturday last through Everett Cox, who had been advised from Sacramento Harry J. Mathews, of Redwood Valley, R. R. Ingels, of Potter Valley, Hale McCowen, Jr., Stanley W. Watson and Robert J. Clark, all of Ukiah, had been named.

VICTIM KEEPS SILENT ABOUT HIS ASSAILANT

Mysterious Attack Is Puzzling Officials At Willits

WHAT IS BEHIND IT?

Occupant Of A Cabin Refuses To Talk—Knows Knifeman

Special Correspondence of The Press

WILLITS, Oct. 8. — The best news received here last week was the government had appropriated $41,161 for the Willits airport. We already have the largest and best field in the county and it is a Municipal project. With this added amount of money our airport can be placed in splendid shape and it will soon be one of the best and most important in this part of the state. Willits also prides itself on being the only town in the county that has an enthusiastic aviation club and a practice plane that is used for instruction. Last week Walter Moore took his aged father, 86, to the Covelo field and they made the trip in 20 minutes. "Bill" Moore is also the oldest flying enthusiast in the county. Several amateur flyers visited our airport last week.

Date Now Settled.

The date for the Willits Industrial Fair has been set for Friday, November 22. It will be held at Willits high school and samples of our timber and mineral resources in addition to other natural resources will be on exhibition. The object of the Fair is to bring in outside capitalists to see what we have to show with hope they may be induced to help develop this section.

Visitors From South.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Folz and daughter, Miss Lillian, of Los Angeles, passed several days here last week visiting Mrs. Jennie Folz.

Got Handsome Gift.

The Catholic ladies gave the last of the series of card parties at Hotel Van last week. There were 17 tables and a large number of prize winners. Carlo Sampietro won the beautiful hope chest and Mrs. Margaret Gunderson and Mrs. Bessie Wonacott won the first and second grand prizes.

Mrs. L. C. Tucker left last week for a visit with friends at Grants Pass Oregon.

Former Resident Marries.

McDonald Haskett, who was born and raised in Willits but who has resided in Santa Rosa several years, and Mary Elizabeth Bronaugh were married at the Episcopal church, Santa Rosa, yesterday. Several of Mr. Haskett's Willits friends attended the wedding.

Some Baby, This!

The largest baby ever born at Howard Memorial Hospital was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mallard. The boy weighed 11 pounds and two ounces. Both mother and babe are reported doing nicely by Dr. R. A. Babcock, attending physician.

Dry Season, So Far.

After all of the threatening weather we have had recently the total precipitation only amounts to .28 of an inch. But this is more than last year when the first rain fell October 24.

Marion Williams was awarded the Bachelor of Arts degree by the University of California for work done at intersession and summer school.

Star Was Stalled.

Our star attraction last week was a real live movie star who stopped off here for lunch. Fred McMurray, the curly headed leading man of numerous films was the visitor and he was accompanied by a companion—no, a man.

P. T. A. Meeting.

A large delegation of Willits women attended the P. T. A. district convention at Laytonville last week. Several distinguished outside speakers were in attendance and made interesting talks. In the published program mention is made of musical selections by students and adults and it also states Mrs. Nellie Corbett played a phonograph.

Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Lewis have returned from a visit in San Francisco.

Woodsman Injured.

Hugh Christie, Jr., was struck in the abdomen by a steel bar while working in the woods near Camp 20. He was brought to Howard Memorial Hospital for treatment but his injuries are

NEW TRIAL ASKED

Judge Donald Geary last week listened to a motion for a new trial in the case of Louis Silver vs. The Bank of America. This is the case in which the Lubin Society, Inc., made grave charges against local superior judge, W. D. L. Held, alleging unfairness on the part of the court.

TWO OIL TANK DRIVERS SHOW THEIR STUFF

Drinking Bout Starting At Point Arena Brings Fines

MUCH DAMAGE IS DONE

Mr. And Mrs. D. Jensen Hurt—Their Car Wrecked

When they start to put on a wreck over on the south coast, they, evidently, believe in putting it on right. Two oil tank cars belonging to R. A. Conys, of San Pablo, met with trouble Thursday evening when the drivers, Glenn L. Conners, of Richmond, and Stanley Isbell, also of that place, had too much of the cup that cheers before they started home, after delivering their loads of gasoline to the Standard Oil Co. at Arena Cove, where the storage tanks and plant are located.

Got Intoxicated.

The boys were around town in an intoxicated condition, it is said, some hours before they were helped into their cars and started home.

He Lost Control.

Stanley Isbell started out first and at the first turn on the grade (where so many cars have turned over and where there is no sign to show what's ahead) he lost control of the truck and it turned over on its side on the right side of the road.

Went For Aid.

Glenn Conners, coming along in a few minutes and seeing what had happened, and already having forgotten and forgiven the fight they had just had in town, started on to Manchester, from whence, he said, he'd send help. He made it down the grade and across the slough and started up the little hill by the red cabin, taking all the road.

Tried To Escape.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Jensen were returning home from a drive and saw the tank truck coming and pulled as far out of the road as they could. The truck hit their car just behind the front seat. How they escaped serious injury is a mystery. Mrs. Jensen received a bad bump on her forehead and various cuts and scratches. Mr. Jensen sustained a badly sprained arm and is considerably shaken up. Both are thanking their lucky stars it was no worse. Their car was badly wrecked. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jensen were wearing glasses which were found in the back seat after the accident.

A Narrow Shave.

After smashing the Jensen car, the truck headed for Ao Stornetta's pea field, failed to make the turn and plunged over the bank and landed right side up at the bottom of a 60-foot sidehill. Driver Conners was pinned behind the wheel. Help arrived almost at once and he was taken from the car. Dr. Huntley was called and gave first aid, and then Dan McCallum took the injured man to Redwood Coast Hospital, Fort Bragg, where it is said he was badly shaken up but not seriously hurt.

Warrant Gotten Out.

A warrant for Mr. Conner's arrest was issued charging him with driving while intoxicated.

Driver Fined $50.

Mr. Isbell's truck was pulled out of the brush and he started to drive home but was arrested and brought before Judge Moungovan who fined him $50 for driving while under influence of liquor.

Why Let Them Drive?

Now the big question in everyone's mind seems to be: "Why were they allowed to start out in that condition in the first place?"

Seem Ill-Fated.

This makes the third time Mr. and Mrs. Jensen have been hit by drunken drivers. And there isn't a more careful driver in the country than Dan Jensen.

W. B. McLeod arrived Friday from Mendocino to pass the week-end with his family here.

RETIRED TOO EARLY LIKELY A FIRE CAUSE

Woman Who Went To Bed At 8:15 P.M. Was Rescued

WAS BADLY BURNED

Fire Department In A Quandary As To Blaze Origin

The Fire Department at Fort Bragg Sunday last was called to the Mary Hoppola residence on the corner of Lincoln and Oak streets Sunday night at 8:15. The firemen found the fire in the bedroom with the bed and bedclothing badly burned.

Woman Was Victim.

Mrs. Hoppola, who had retired for the night, received severe burns on her right arm, from the wrist to the elbow. The first aid crew sprayed the burns with tannic acid and then rushed Mrs. Hoppola to the hospital for treatment. Her burns were dressed and she was allowed to return to her home.

Much Heat Developed.

The heat from the burning bed-clothing and bed was so intense the linoleum on the floor was charred.

Retired As Bed Burned!

Just what would bring about a fire in the bed at such an unusually early hour is stumping the firemen. It would, probably, have taken a fire some time to smoulder in the mattress as it evidently did, and Mrs. Hoppola, accordingly, must have, unknowingly, gotten into bed even as a fire burned in the mattress.

BLASTS OLSON FOR "STALLING" ON RED ISSUE

A verbal blast at Governor Olson, condemning his delay in signing the anti-Communist bill, was issued in Sacramento by Chester F. Gannon, Sacramento assemblyman.

"Governor Olson's delay in signing the anti-Communist bill is not surprising in view of his leanings toward all radicals," Mr. Gannon said.

"Is he waiting advice from Harry Bridges, Tom Mooney and his many radical appointees and friends? His excuse for delay is that he has to study the bill to determine its constitutionality.

"Since when has he attempted to take the place of the Supreme Court of California, which alone can make the test?

"He wants an excuse for his delay, and, despite his recent protestations of Americanism, it is my firm belief it is occasioned only by the fact the people are aroused to the danger of the 'fifth column.'

"It is interesting to note that while only three members of the assembly voted against the bill, two of them are well-known favorites of Governor Olson and have been mentioned as the most likely members of the assembly to receive political plums which are soon to be distributed."

DODGE TRUCKS MUCH ADMIRED

An Unusual Range Of Improvements Is Observed

Modernly streamlined in styling and markedly advanced in design and engineering, the new 1941 line of Dodge Job-Rated trucks is by far the most complete in the history of the corporation, according to W. G. Cox, Ukiah distributor.

Has Wide Range.

Offered in 112 standard chassis and body models (an increase of 16 models since the outset of 1940) on 18 different wheelbase lengths and in six capacities ranging from one-half-ton commercial units to heavy-duty gasoline and Diesel-powered freight haulers, the new line is said to meet more than 97 per cent of truck hauling requirements.

Built To Serve.

An impressive trimness and sturdiness characterizes the up-to-date appearance of these new trucks. The new one-half, three-quarter and one-ton models are available in a score of two-tone color combinations at no extra cost.

WORRY OVER DOPE CHARGES SUICIDE CAUSE

Lake Woman Held In Bridge Accident Takes Life

CAR HAD NARCOTICS

Mrs. Jean Belknap, A Victim, Many Say, Of A Mistake

Locking herself in a bedroom of her Lakeport home Thursday Mrs. Jean Belknap, 30, attractive wife of John Belknap, wealthy retired stock and bond broker, fired a bullet from a .38 caliber pistol into her heart.

Left A Message.

A note, sealed, and addressed to Mrs. Belknap's mother was found on a stand in the suicide room by Lake county authorities. The contents of the note have not been divulged, but authorities said everything pointed to suicide and stated the young woman, wife of the elderly Mr. Belknap for the past three years, had been brooding in recent weeks over her arrest May 19 on the Golden Gate bridge on a charge of possessing narcotics.

Worried Over Trial.

Trial of the case was still pending, Sheriff Day said. The fatal shooting occurred in the spacious Belknap home, three miles north of Lakeport. The death gun, from which a single shot had been fired, was found alongside the body when officers broke into the locked room.

Known In Ukiah.

Mr. Belknap is well known in Ukiah and comes here often. Up to the time the possession of narcotics charge had been placed against Mrs. Belknap, she, too, was a frequent Ukiah visitor. She was a handsome, vivacious woman, many years younger than her husband.

Was In A Wreck.

While crossing the Golden Gate bridge one afternoon last May, Mrs. Belknap's car became involved in a collision with another machine. Mrs. Belknap, at the time, appeared to be acting in a peculiar manner and the man into whose car Mrs. Belknap's automobile crashed, insisted she had been drinking. In making a search of Mrs. Belknap's machine a quantity of narcotics were found by the officers and, while a charge of intoxication could not be successfully proven against Mrs. Belknap, it was believed, the discovery of narcotics in the car did provide ground for detaining her.

Was Not An Addict.

Those who knew Mrs. Belknap have always been inclined to believe she was not a user of narcotics, but their being found in the machine could never be explained.

WOMEN TAKING ACTIVE PARTS

Republican Leaders Working On Coast And In Ukiah

For Saturday luncheon at Little River Inn, Mrs. M. Eglin, Mrs. Lillian Slater and Mrs. Julia Bodie joined with representatives from all over the coast section in a meeting of Republican Women.

Organize The Coast.

Main purpose of the event was organizing a coast division of the Council of Republican Women and during the session various captains were appointed for each precinct. These captains in turn will name lieutenants to aid in calling on homes of the coast, in doing campaign work.

Had Ukiah Meeting.

That evening at The Palace Hotel in Ukiah the three ladies who attended the meeting at Little River Inn were present for a gathering of the local Council of Republican Women, and plans for perfecting organization were outlined. Captains in various sections throughout this district are to be appointed for campaign work, and the matter will be gone into more thoroughly at a meeting of the Council tonight at The Palace Hotel.

ENJOYED FAIR

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Crawford were among the many from the Valley going to Boonville to attend the Mendocino County Fair on Sunday.

IS TO REST

Mrs. E. V. A. Murphey, undoubtedly the foremost woman authority on plant life in this part of the country and one of the most delightful writers for newspapers in the State, is home from Nevada and Oregon where, for the past six months, she has been in Federal employ, instructing Indians of Nevada and Oregon and will resume her duties in the spring. Mrs. Murphey, after a few days visit with Ukiah friends, will go to Covelo the end of the week.

ACCLAIM FAIR THE GREATEST PUT ON SO FAR

Unusually Large Attendance From Ukiah Sunday

EXHIBITS OUTDID '39

Hospitality Manifested By Valley Folk Outstanding

Special Correspondence of The Press

ANDERSON VALLEY, Oct. 8.—All Mendocino county is content to sit back and catch its breath after the driving grind of getting ready for the county fair and then attending at least part of the celebration. According to people who are in the Fair business this is one of the top-ranking county fairs of the state and the reason for its success is the whole-hearted co-operation of the entire county.

The Booth Awards.

Part of the $14,000 in prize money went to the following: Farm Centers — Potter Valley first, Point Arena second, Hopland third, Anderson Valley fourth, Fort Bragg-Mendocino fifth, Willits sixth; Granges—Anderson Valley first, Garcia second, Potter Valley third, Redwood Valley fourth, Comptche fifth, Ukiah sixth, Little Lake seventh; Future Farmers—Point Arena first, Willits second, Anderson Valley third, Covelo fourth; 4-H Girls—Potter Valley first, Mendocino second, Ukiah third, Hopland fourth, Redwood Valley fifth; 4-H Boys—Hopland first, Redwood Valley second, Willits third, Anderson Valley fourth; Hopland Girls Agricultural Club fifth, Ukiah sixth, Potter Valley seventh, Laytonville eighth.

Made The Address.

Judge H. L. Preston made the official opening address at the Fair Sunday.

Attendance Large.

The receipts at the Fair ran to $2240 for the three days admissions.

Many At Dance.

Check of receipts for the dance Saturday night showed $389 was taken in at the door.

Sunday night the chapter ended, and reluctantly was closed another volume of "Anderson Valley's Fair and Apple Show," and placed on memory's shelf along with the rest of the series. Each page we turned had disclosed more of interest, more of entertainment and it would be hard to mention any item lacking in the pleasant story of Boonville's three-day festival.

Everyone Welcomed.

The keynote of it all was hospitality and friendliness—on every side it was evidenced in smiling faces and words of welcome and greeting wherever people gathered. First of all, the exhibits were fine; Ciinderella's coach and handsome castle of dried fruit caught the eye, as did the imposing "Tower of the Sun" and the delightful miniature pool below it; perfect reproductions of Exposition scenes. For that matter, there was plenty of admiration directed at the Liberty Bell, for its well chosen theme, and the amount of effort that went into fashioning it. Those are only three—there were many more exhibits—the "Color Chart" was clever and outstanding, and all the rest came in for a share

COVELO GIVES A WELCOME TO NEW TEACHERS

More Than 100 Dine On The Occasion Last Week

GOT WARM GREETING

Instructors Are Shown They Were In A Friendly Town

Special Correspondence of The Press

COVELO, Oct. 8. — It was a promising meeting the Tahoe-Pacific Highway 20 Association held at Nice, Lake county, last weekend. The six counties of Highway 20 include Nevada, Sutter, Yuba, Colusa, Lake and Mendocino, each county being represented, with Mendocino having far the largest delegation from the Fort Bragg coast section. Headquarters for delegates was the Aurora Club, with proprietor George Hewett being secretary of the Association.

Want Next Meeting.

Discussion and plans were formed following the luncheon and catfish dinner at which President Gill, of Colusa, presided. Prominent state officials attending were Senator George M. Biggar, of the Fourth district, and Assemblyman Michael J. Burns, First district. Fort Bragg asked for the next meeting, to be held late this month or early in November. Members from the other end requested the date be set when fishing is good. The idea of the Association is to establish year around travel through Highway 20.

Talked On Highway.

Senator G. M. Biggar was the outstanding guest speaker during the program — his topic being highways, which he is especially familiar with—and no doubt derived from his talk, the association slogan will be "Nevada to the Sea." Among Fort Bragg delegates were Louie Wood, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Wood; Mayor A. Polly; George Nickols, editor of The Fort Bragg Advocate; R. T. Mowery, manager of the Power Company, and his family; the Charles Melvilles; Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Jewett; the Charles Wellers, Paul Racine and Surveyor F. E. Lermond. D. W. MacMillan, relief official, accompanied Assemblyman Burns from Eureka, after which they rested overnight at Ukiah, thence to Santa Rosa for business reasons. H. S. Foreman, of Nevada City, was an enthused speaker on why the highway should become a reality and told of the fast-growing traffic to that snow-sports area. J. W. Kauffman, Marysville Chamber of Commerce, and Harry Puttman, Colusa, represented their sections. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bernard, Ukiah, attended the evening meeting, as did Supervisor Kirkpatrick, of Lake county, and Arthur Treppa, Indian welfare worker and member of the Indian Brotherhood of California. The writer was a guest of Senator and Mrs. G. M. Biggar.

Showed Route Film.

Concluding the evening session Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Cook, of Woodland, added pleasurable moments, presenting several excellent reels of technicolor films which they took, starting from Woodland to Fort Bragg for the Paul Bunyan celebration, and co-starring Mrs. Louis Wood and Mrs. H. R. Cook. The pictures were beautiful and most appropriate for the occasion, including scenes through Lake county. Coast scenes were highlighted by surf fishing, lovely blooming wild flowers, the huge wild blackberries, Russian Gulch, the entire operation of the Fort Bragg lumber mill from the time the logs were taken from the forest. These scenes were educational as well as immensely interesting. Then Big Paul Bunyan and his entertainers created much laughter. The meeting opened with everyone standing and singing "God Bless America."

Many Willkie Buttons.

Only Willkie buttons were prominent up and down the long white-linened dinner tables.

Invited To Lake.

The Clear Lake Yachting Club invited outside guests to enjoy their clubrooms and to watch the annual regatta and special sailing races Sunday afternoon.

Covelo Has A Doctor.

Covelo may be a strange place on the map to some, but Dr. Edward Miller was familiar with the lay of the land before he took residence here. So this week, a

Corporation Appeals To Supervisors For Aid

ASKS AN ORDINANCE

Several Men Killed Near Tatu Lately Intoxicated

The Board of Supervisors held a special meeting last week at which several questions of more than ordinary importance were acted upon.

The matter of public liability and property damage insurance was discussed and several Ukiah men joined in the discussion. Following a study of the matter it was decided to continue the policies with the Pacific Indemnity Company.

May Use Building.

Mrs. Chas. Kasch appeared and requested use of the Ukiah Veterans' Memorial building for Red Cross work. The supervisors had no objection and the matter was referred to the veterans organizations for their approval.

Want Protecting Ordinance.

Agent Henry P. Dohring, on behalf of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Co., asked the ordinance relating to drunkenness on county highways be amended to include the railroad right-of-way. This should be a protection to the railroad at Ukiah, Willits and the vicinity of Dos Rios. Near Tatu several drunken men have been killed and injured while in drunken condition and the railroad should have protection. The matter was continued to October 15 when H. O. Peters, Special Agent for the Railroad company, will appear in behalf of the company and give additional information.

Named Election Officers.

The board appointed election officers and designated polling places for the general election to be held November fifth.

To Handle Registrations.

County Clerk H. M. Burke discussed the matter of the national military draft registration to be held October 16 and the supervisors decided the county clerk should handle the registration.

County Surveyor Ed Smith was given permission to leave the state.

William Davis, County Welfare Director, made his monthly report.

Structure Accepted.

The board accepted the Mendocino County Fair and Apple Show building at Boonville which was erected by Reed & Tuttle and authorized a notice of completion to be recorded.

Checking Up On Coming Election

Clay Bernard, of Marin county, was in Ukiah Saturday enroute to Yreka. Mr. Bernard, who has as good an eye on political matters as any man in California, is sent out as a representative of the Willkie-McNary headquarters to check up on matters political. He will travel over 25 counties before returning to San Francisco. Mr. Bernard finds everywhere he goes a decided Willkie enthusiasm.

THE WAY OF THE DESPOT

IT WAS ONLY A FEW WEEKS BACK President F. D. Roosevelt promised the people of the United States, after he had, without consulting them, drawn this country to the brink of war and had hammered through the conscription bill, he would see the draft was administered fairly, but his promise to safeguard the draft was just as empty as all of the hundreds of promises he has, in the past eight years, made the American people.

Last week the whole country was dumbfounded when it became known Elliot Roosevelt, son of President F. D. Roosevelt, had been named a Captain in the U. S. Army. This favored son, without any military experience whatever, was to be placed in command of common men, who at $21 a month, had to learn to become soldiers, the hard way!

President Roosevelt, without offering any excuse whatever, violated his pledge to the people. Naturally, he justified his betrayal because of his self-conceived conviction a dictator does not have to keep his word to his vassals.

Elliot Roosevelt is no better than any other American. Just because his father happens to be President is no reason for making all other American men pack a gun for $21 a month, while Elliot Roosevelt sits in a swivel chair, immune from camp duty, and draws $317 a month.

Only a dictator would favor his own son over all other American men and boys. If a selective draft is going to be a success, it will have to be fair . If dictator management is going to conduct it, it will be a failure.

All the world knows the Roosevelt boys are battlers. They have heard about their fights in the divorce courts of this country. As a family they stand alone in the divorce-demanding class. It would be all right, accordingly, to let them show their ability as fighters on the battlefield, but they should start in as privates, not as captains. If they are as good fighters in the war as they have been in the divorce court the Roosevelt boys' advancement might probably be rapid enough to satisfy the dictatorial whims of their esteemed father.

IN HAPPENED IN GERMANY

REMEMBER! HITLER WAS ELECTED THE FIRST THREE TIMES!

That was the warning of Jerrold L. Seawell, President pro tem of the State Senate and director in northern California of the Willkie-McNary campaign committee.

"I don't think people realize the dangers of the third term anymore than the German people realized the dangers of re-electing Adolph Hitler," Senator Seawell said.

He pointed out such men as Governor C. L. Olson, being closely associated with the Roosevelt campaign in California indicated the path that would be followed in the future, if they were successful.

"Everyone knows the purge is an un-American device, but neither Olson nor Roosevelt hesitated to use it when it appeared their own ends might be served," Senator Seawell said.

"That the purge failed is a tribute to the intelligence of the California voters. I am hoping the California voters will see through the sham and the idle promises of the Olson-Roosevelt combine and refuse to vote for these men who forget the American way when they can gain personally by any Hitler-like method," he added.

Senator Seawell pointed out Roosevelt's election would assure Olson all of the Federal patronage and he would be in line to recommend judges to the Federal bench, "Jobs he would undoubtedly recommend for his radical friends."

"The time has come," Senator Seawell said, "when Califosnians can no longer temporize with this unholy trio—of Roosevelt, Wallace and Olson. We must repudiate them in the face of dangers to our Democratic government. There is only one way out—elect Wendell L. Willkie as president so we can make America a stronghold for a free people."

KILL THIS ONE

A PROPOSAL THAT HAS BEEN DEFEATED once by popular vote and five times by vote of the State Legislature appears again on the ballot November 5.

It is the so-called Daylight Saving Act, a law to set ahead the clock by one hour during the summer months. Proponents argue thus we will create an extra hour of daylight leisure for ourselves each year from May through September.

Daylight Saving was imposd on the nation by an act of Congress during the 1917-18 war emergency in an attempt to conserve electric power. It was repealed promptly in 1919 after the emergency, because of its general unpopularity.

In 1930, when the proposal was on the ballot, it was defeated by a ratio of more than three to one. Nearly a million votes were cast against it and only 317,890 in its favor. Not one county in the state voted for Daylight Saving. Many counties rejected it by votes of ten to one, says The Oakland Post Enquirer.

The same great groups of citizens who opposed the change then, oppose it now.

Labor opposes it because it will result in great inconvenience to many workers and will prolong the hours of work for many.

Farmers oppose it because farm working hours are geared naturally to the seasons and changing the clock cannot change the time at which farm duties may be performed. It only upsets the relationship of the farmer and his workers with everything else in his community.

Housewives find that Daylight Saving causes as much confusion in the home routine as it does elsewhere with the necessity of putting the children on a new schedule, changing their eating and sleeping habits twice a year.

Railroads must ignore Daylight Saving time in order to avoid disrupting time tables. Consequently the traveling public finds itself completely out of step with hotel and restaurant service, entertainment programs and business hours.

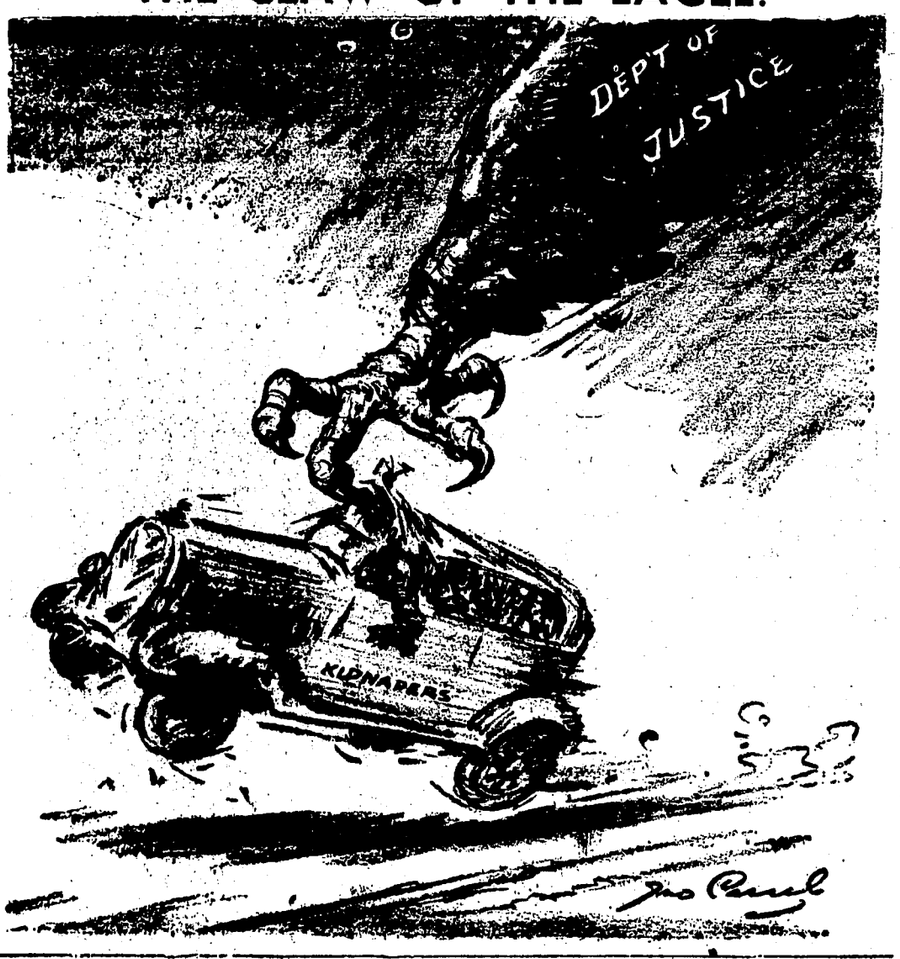
Churches and churchgoers oppose changed hours because of the interference with both morning and evening attendance at services.

The motion picture industry with its 100,000 employes in the state would be affected adversely, due to a sharp reduction in theatre attendance.

Think what difference Daylight Saving would make in your business, your working hours, your recreation, your income.

Vote "No" on Proposition 5.

THE CLAW OF THE EAGLE!



THE VOICE OF THE SEQUOIA TREE

Mr. McGimsey has had letters from the National Sequoia Park Service in Santa Fe, New Mexico, requesting it be allowed to run the poem in the Government Forest Service Bulletin; has received communications from Photographic, Inc., of Portland, Oregon, relative to commercializing the same; and recently the Hawlley Burl Company, Weott, California, has voluntarily presented to the author a beautifully hand-carved plaque to be used in the first setting of manuscript. The dedication goes to Olive E. Busch, former Anderson Valley woman, and one of Mendocino's most honored educational leaders, who has steadfastly believed in the writer's work and said he would, some day, give the world a classic. Here it is!

PREFACE TO GROVER C. McGIMSEY'S POEM, "THE VOICE OF THE SEQUOIA TREE"

By Mitchell Lewis, French-Canadian Actor With Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Dated At Hollywood, California, May 28, 1936.

"In my many years of making motion pictures, I have had access to work in the forests of Maine, Wisconsin, Oregon, Washington, California and Minnesota, and have viewed the grandeur of the forest primeval; but, in all the world, there is nothing so grand and majestic as the Sequoia or Redwood tree. Edwin Markham has glorified the forests of Oregon and Joaquin Miller has spoken of the Sierra Nevadas, but to my mind this poem of Grover C. McGimsey's shows him to be the only one who has drawn a true picture of the Redwoods. I mean this sincerely."

THE VOICE OF THE SEQUOIA TREE

BY GROVER C. McGIMSEY

I am the oldest thing they say
Living upon the earth today;
The only thing that can still go on
When other species of life are gone.
I bear the brunt of the wind, the rain,
The forest fires, and time and again
Deep in my heart where an axe has drawn
My very blood, I have still lived on.
I am the tallest of all the trees
Kissed by a friendly western breeze;
The tallest, strongest, sturdiest thing
That grows in the forest by brook or spring.
Out of me beautiful homes are made,
And lovers and dreamers enjoy my shade.
Curio gatherers from every shore
Camp and live at my very door;
For out of my burls they can carve the things
Treasured by housewives, servants and kings.
I am the secret to youth and age,
A mystery it seems to the saint and sage;
A mystery in legend of time beyond
The birth of Pharaoh, I looked upon
The blue of the ocean and heard the cry
Of the night birds here on the western sky.

I've seen the caravans come and go,
The Indians, tribes of them, long ago—
And back in the distant ages fled
I with my branches the elk herd fed.
I've seen the miners and pioneers
Hewing and building for great careers,
But they never disturbed me, they called me friend,
And oft in the sweep of the river's bend
Lay down beside me to watch their fires
Or to gaze on the Pleiades of stars.
Thus dwelling as brothers heart to heart
Together we fashioned a nation's art.

How do I live to go on and on
When other species of life are gone?
How do I linger when other things die
Towering in grandeur toward the sky,
My branches a refuge for beast and bird
Where the roar of the waterfall is heard?
Ah! I will tell you: I am always quiet
Thru the golden dawn and the soft twilight
Thru the long, long day, knowing naught of ill,
Or of anything less than the beautiful;
Of anything less than eternal good
Voiced in a fern-clad, mossy wood.

So, if down the ages in life's long quest
For exquisite things and the loveliest
Of silent places, I've grown to be
An age-old, majestic Sequoia tree—
It is simply because as I journeyed on
From aeon to aeon and from dawn to dawn
Thru a cycle of changes, I became in theme
What my heart had yearned for—a perfect dream
Of imposing beauty, God's sentinel
Of forest monarchs, in leafy dell,
An adornment to nature supreme
In the wildwood, by lake, glade and stream—
Where environed to sunlight and shadow
To moonlight and darkness I keep
A tryst with tomorrow's forthcoming
And the birds who would sing me to sleep.

Freak Incident A Reputation Maker

Young Tommy Rawles, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Rawles, is resplendent in cowboy togs these days—holster, gun and all. And no dude cowboy is he but a real one—a crack shot, too. In the back yard of his home at 624 Dora avenue, Tommy fired his cap pistol up into a tree—and out fell a baby bird. Coincidence, maybe, but it still looked like Tommy was an excellent marksman. The bird is being cared for at the Rawles home, while recovering from a broken wing, and is rapidly growing tame.

WATCHED THE CASE

Assistant Attorney General Thomas Coakley was here yesterday watching proceedings in connection with complaints regarding ratings of State employes at the State Hospital and returned that same evening to the Capital.

Frank Toles, who had been ill with a heart ailment, is reported considerably better this week.

Sidelights of Sadness

Being incidents connected with California's State Prisons as observed by A. R. O'Brien, editor of The Republican Press, while chairman of the State Board of Prisons of California.

HOME-COMING OF DEMPSEY AUGUSTINE

He was a Lake county Indian and he was doing life.

The white man's court record showed he had murdered a resident of the rancheria on which both the victim and the prisoner lived, but, as I studied the inmate and went over the facts I could not bring myself to condemn, too harshly, the stolid man who sat before me, asking, in guttural, slow-timed words aid to help him go home.

Behind the killing was justification—as old as the hills of Jerusalem — the right to defend one's life and property.

Revenge for a wrong.

He was squat and the bow in his legs told me he had lived much of his life, while free, astride a horse. It took me a long time to get his story. He did not get excited. Throughout relation of what had happened he did not change the pitch of his voice. In pidgin English he told me, as I sat, for more than an hour in the directors' room at San Quentin, his weird tale. I realized what I was hearing were ghost words which had been inculcated in the minds of Indians many decades back by the elder men of the tribe.—It was the right to punish.—Cruel, cold, but just and even, which those wraith tribesmen (who rowed about the lake in their bidarkas long before whitemen came to California—Braves, who aeons ago, rode their last trip with the silent oarsman who carries us down that mythical river Styx) believed should follow all who violated that first man's protection bulwark — the law of mine and thine.

Emotionless he told me the man he killed had stolen two venison hams he had cached and then he had discovered he intended to steal his boat, so one June night, when the moon was big and full, he stalked his victim. He tracked him in the woods that ran down to Clear Lake where, moored to a pile, was his boat and, as the would-be skiff-purloiner stepped out into the moonlight, he pot-shot him. "Just shoot 'em one time," he told me and, at each word, he nodded his head, to emphasize, apparently his prowess with the rifle. Then he packed the body on his shoulders into the shallow water and, reaching his canoe, placed the dead man in his boat and, rowing to the other end of the lake, dumped the corpse into the willows. The crime was discovered and the whiteman's law sent Dempsey Augustine, for now that he is no more, I can tell you his name, to prison.

Following his plea to me I have been visited regularly by the prisoner's mother, Lucy Cooper. She is an old, old, old, old Indian woman . Her face is cobwebbed with the seams 90 years of life have brought. The hair that once was raven black is white and yellow, and big, honest eyes that long ago were sable-hued are faded and filled with tears the broken ducts will not hold back. Always was her plea the same. Lucy Cooper wanted me to bring back her son. I pleaded with the board for Dempsey Augustine, as I promised Lucy Cooper I would do, but the white man's law is inexorable. It ever takes its pound of flesh when a man's lone friend is an aged woman, and I had no luck. Lucy had $60 she saved to outfit her boy and pay his way home when he came out. I got word from San Quentin this morning Dempsey Augustine is coming home and I have sent for Lucy Cooper to come in and bring her $60 and whatever more is necessary I am going to put up to pay the undertaker to prepare Dempsey Augustine's body for shipment.

He died last night in San Quentin.

And, when Lucy Cooper, who is an old, old, old, old Indian woman, comes in I am going to tell her God will not be so tough on Dempsey Augustine as the White Man's law has been and, if I build up God's intentions too much He will, I have no fear, forgive me, for He will see Lucy Cooper is an old, old, old, old Indian woman and I am one who clumsily plays the part of Priest.

THESE KITCHEN COMPANIONS BELONG TOGETHER
ELECTRIC RANGE and WATER HEATER

Every woman who has cooked electrically likes the simplicity, the ease, the automatic operation of the electric range. They would not go back to old cooking methods for anything in the world. These same women know too that it pays in many ways to install and use an electric water heater as a kitchen companion to their efficient electric range.

When you buy an electric water heater at the time you purchase your electric range monthly payments are only slightly increased. The electric water heater is not an expensive appliance. And when you use both the electric range and water heater you are enabled to buy electricity in the lowest rate block. This low electric rate makes electric water heating inexpensive.

For a cool clean kitchen this summer enjoy the use of the modern kitchen companions—electric range and water heater.

Aged Ukiah Lady In A Car Mix-Up

Mrs. Jane Broaddus, 83 years old, of this city, was slightly injured when her son's car was struck by another vehicle near Cotati last week. Highway Patrol Officer James Shanks, of Sonoma county, who investigated, said the Broaddus car was traveling south when the car driven by Arthur B. Evans of 211 Cherry street, Petaluma, turned left across the highway and crashed into the rear fender on the left side. Mr. Evans said he looked before he turned and did not see another car approaching. The Broaddus car skidded sidewise 60 feet from the impact, Officer Shanks said. Mrs. Broaddus suffered mainly from shock. She was enroute to San Jose with her son to visit relatives.

COVELO GIVES A WELCOME TO NEW TEACHERS

More Than 100 Dine On The Occasion Last Week

GOT WARM GREETING

Carried from page 1

am pleased to introduce a new resident and physician, Dr. Edward Miller and his attractive wife—a nurse. The very young couple are getting quartered in new surroundings, having purchased from Roy Storie the former Hoxie property on Main street. Offices are being arranged at the residence. Dr. Miller is employed by the Government Indian service and will fill the vacancy of Dr. J. E. Mooy.

Los Angeles Graduate.

The new doctor received his degree at the same College of Medicine at Los Angeles as did Dr. Mooy. He came here from Nebraska where he was a staff member of the Lincoln State Hospital. He was born and raised near Fallon, Nevada, and so the overworked "delightful" is the word I am going to use in expressing the Millers' attitude toward their very decided permanent residence. We cordially welcome and wish for them added success.

Teachers Were Dined.

At a reception and chicken dinner held in the church parlors the other night, none were more eagerly received than the local educators, who in turn radiated with the pleasure of being introduced at the affair given in their honor by women of the church. Senator G. M. Biggar and Mrs. Clyde Riffe gave the welcoming. Rev. Chas. Duncan, director of religious education in northern California and Nevada for Presbyterian churches, was included in the honored group. Rev. Douglas Noble presided through the evening and more than 100 places were filled at the dinner on which Rev. G. R. Wood asked the blessing. The program included a solo by Mrs. Chas. Lovell, an accordion solo by Miss Hazel Smith and a solo by Chas. Delgado, principal of the Indian grade school. Rev. Duncan spoke on the necessity of cooperation of the church and schools.

A Fine Field.

When Mendocino county purchased the present airport at Covelo the United States Chamber of Commerce Aeronautics Division sent a man to inspect the field and this man made known the Covelo field was second best of any west of the Mississippi for natural conditions, the best field being located at Denver, Colorado. In view of this fact, along with other conditions, $22,000 may be available from government funds for improvements. Planes connected with the defense program have lately viewed the local field, taking pictures and placing the site on the map.

At Point Arena.

A quartet of matrons, members of Augusta Chapter, attending the O. E. S. reception at Point Arena for Mrs. Christine Penn, district deputy of the Ninth district, were Mesdames Adele Dunlap, worthy matron; Margaret Johnston, Minnie Hurt and Emma Rice. They report a most pleasurable trip and tell of the Civic Center being so beautifully decorated in autumn foliage and huge redwood-barked floor-centered basket filled with assorted fruits. Their drive along the coast and through Fort Bragg was enjoyed.

Got New Car.

For some reason, it is always a thrill when we note ownership of a late model car. This week finds Mr. and Mrs. Polly Gray, of Williams Valley, driving the handsomest four-passenger, special, deluxe Plymouth coupe in town. The color is gunmetal and it was purchased through the Covelo Garage. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Johnston took the night train to San Francisco for delivery and while business was being transacted, the Missus made the shops. Returning, they were guests overnight at The Palace Hotel, Ukiah, and dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mazzoni.

Missed By One.

Reminiscent for Mrs. H. C. Tuttle is when she registered through the turnstile on Treasure Island just a step ahead of the six millionth visitor, who was presented a gift ticket to the New York World's Fair. Following her fortnight of pleasures in the Bay metropolis she was met by her husband at Ukiah prior to his attending a soil conservation meeting. They were houseguests of the George W. Davises. At Upper Lake they were entertained at dinner by the George Hutchinsons and visited, next door, the young Bert Hutchinsons in their newly completed residence. The Hutchinsons send regards to valley acquaintances.

Were At C. E. Convention.

Rev. and Mrs. Douglas Noble were in attendance at the Christian Endeavor Convention held at Ukiah. Rev. Noble delivered one of the evening messages, "Christ Calls To A New Life," at the Christian church.

Stork Is Enroute.

A little heir or heiress will be welcomed shortly by the Roy Kasers, who are occupying a cottage at the Dr. J. E. Mooy residence at Nice. Mrs. Rudolph Kaser has been their guest for two weeks.

On An Outing.

Leaving for Tehama county, a hunting and fishing party who make their annual trek together and equipped with fine camping facilities, include Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moss; Bates Dixon and daughter, Geyserville; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bucknell, Joe Williamson, Covelo; and Dr. Palmer, Oakland. Mrs. Williamson will join the Nimrods before camp is broken.

Little Craig Hurt, son of the Gavin Hurts, is having the time of his young life, visiting in San Francisco with his aunts, Mrs. C. M. Bailey and Mrs. E. R. Caldwell.

Clinton English, who for sometime has been in a Ukiah hospital, is rapidly responding to treatments.

Are To Move.

The Ray Stories, having sold their residence property, will soon be temporarily ensconced at the Joe Williamson apartments.

Have A Daughter.

It's a girl, Janice Louise, for Edna and Gussie Redwine, born September 26, at Howard Memorial Hospital. The 10½-pound baby was welcomed by a 12-year-old sister, Lois, and 15-year-old brother, Jimmie. Dr. R. A. Babcock attended.

How About It?

Rather personal, but is it true a prominent citizen is dissatisfied because he was seated too close to the table to eat sufficiently at the reception honoring the teachers?

Classes Commenced.

Fall and winter Bible classes have opened at the Federated church. Classes are held each Thursday afternoon from two to four. Plans for opening of choir practice are being arranged.

Had A Trip.

For the weekend and mileage on the new sedan, Mrs. Mart Cubbler and Miss Willa trekked over the mountains for a visit with Buddy Cubbler, who is getting out piling in the Sierras, above Marysville. They were guests at Woodleaf Lodge and enjoyed Saturday night dancing. Homeward they chatted with the Will Conners, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Cubbler, at Chico, and an aged uncle, Will Conner, at Willows. Another local youth working at the same place is Louis Feigin.

Was Congratulated.

E. A. Gravier was felicitated by old friends the other evening on the occasion of his natal anniversary. The packaged gifts were included as wedding compliments.

Senator and Mrs. G. M. Biggar were dinner hosts to a Piedmont duo, Mrs. Lawrence Gantz and Mrs. J. McMartin recently.

Joe Montgomery, here from San Francisco, is in charge of the Preston Shields Barber Shop while Preston is hunting in Modoc with Green Shields, Cecil Williamson and Estel Hagne.

Saw Sick Friend.

For the purpose of cheering an ill and aged cousin, Mrs. Cassie Frain, and where she once made her home while employed as telephone operator at San Jose, Mrs. C. G. Fish drove to the southern city.

Dr. J. E. Mooy passed several days in the valley the first of the week from Upper Lake.

Dr. H. O. Hilton was here from Red Bluff for regular inspection of slaughter houses.

Early Fall Weather.

Unsettled weather and showers followed by chilling temperatures have prevailed since the first of the month. Anthony Peak and high mountains are early dressed in snow.

Back From Hunt.

A two-night guest of the Bennett Johnstons was Vern Foster, from Santa Rosa, who with Ed Storie and Willard Brush had a successful deer chase in Trinity.

Many Attended.

A large attendance was out for Rally Day Sunday at the Federated church when plans for fall work were started.

Were In Ukiah.

Localites at the countyseat Friday were Truman Lowry, Constable and Mrs. Chas. Lovell and Mrs. Grace Foster.

Chas. P. Matthey was a two-day guest at the Wm. McColloch residence, from Oakland, before going to the Travis Trinity ranch for a hunt.

Senator and Mrs. G. M. Biggar attended the County Fair and Apple Show at Boonville.

Hurt At Work.

Ralph Jamison was injured while working on the county road and was taken to Howard Memorial Hospital.

ATTENDED MEETING

Miss Violet Elliott, vice-principal of Ukiah elementary school, attended a consultation group of the California Teachers Association in Willits Saturday. The group was addressed by Arthur F. Corey, a state director of the California Teachers Association. Associate directors present were Miss Thelma Sawyers and Brand Johnson, of Willits, L. D. Davis, Lakeport, and Miss Violet Elliott.

TO RUN STORE

A new store, offering a variety of service to the public is to be opened shortly at 619 South State street. Roy Smith, former Safeway manager, will be the proprietor of "Treat-You-Rite," where a delicatessen, fountain service and grocery department are to be features.

AN EASTERN MOTOR TRIP

(By Olive E. Busch)

(Last week's installment of the Travelogue of Mrs. Olive E. Busch left us in the Bad Lands of South Dakota, following a description of the great mountain sculpture work of Gutzlon Borglum. From there this week's story continues.)

We left by the Iron Mountain road descending through two spiral bridges and by winding grades. After reaching the top we could look back and see the faces through a square tunnel in the rock over the road. We dropped rapidly down the mountain side to Custer, which has an elevation of 5301 feet. We had dinner at Lou's restaurant in town and stayed over night at "The Round-Up Camp," a new, modern auto court. We found that, while we were traveling from the Badlands to the Black Hills, there had been heavy wind and hail storms both east and west of us. The papers reported southeastern South Dakota, where we were the day before, was hit by a storm that damaged buildings, uprooted trees and flattened crops. In one such section lightning burned two barns and in another hailstones as big as base balls fell and riddled crops so farmers could not tell where the binders quit work. We arrived at Custer about six p. m. and were told that in a storm at one p. m., hail stones as big as hen's eggs fell, breaking the neon signs all over town. The neon sign at the court where we stayed was broken.

Had Reached Wyoming.

We were glad and grateful we missed both storms. Next morning we crossed over into Wyoming and ate our breakfast at Newcastle. Wyoming was admitted to the Union as the forty-fourth state July 10, 1890, 21 years after it had been officially recognized as a territory in 1869. The Admission Day celebration was still in progress when we arrived in the state. The Wyoming automobile license plates are stamped this year with the slogan, "Fifty years of statehood." We passed through the towns of Upton, Moorcraft, Gillete, Spotted Horse and Ucross and arrived in Buffalo in time to have our lunch in the old Occidental Hotel, made famous by Owen Wister in his book, "The Virginian." Caspar on the North Platte river is 123 miles south of Buffalo. The Goose Egg ranch, 15 miles west of Caspar, was the setting of the book which also included Medicine Bow farther south. I would like to read the book again since I now know a little more about the locale of the story.

Have Women's Club.

On the wall of The Occidental Hotel hung the framed charter of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Buffalo, organized August 15, 1939. One of the hotel employes told me the Club holds dinner meetings at the hotel every second and fourth Wednesdays. The theater opposite the hotel is named The Bison. Soon after leaving Buffalo we began to ascend the Big Horn mountains. We passed many cars stopped along the road to cool their engines because the water boils so easily at these high altitudes. On reaching the summit we drove through the twin gaps in the mountains, Muddy Pass and Powder River Pass, both with an elevation of 9666 feet, the highest point we reached on our trip. We then began the long descent of the Big Horn mountains over a narrow winding grade to Ten Sleep where we had dinner at the well-known Ten Sleep Inn and stayed overnight at the "A & F Cabins." Next morning we drove west to Warland where we had breakfast and then turned north and followed Big Horn river through the town of Basin to Greybull. This irrigated area had fine crops of sugar beets, beans and alfalfa. At Greybull we turned west again and continued on to Cody, the real old west, where they put on a rodeo without importing professional cowboys.

In Cody's Home.

The town is the former home of the famous scout, hunter and showman extraordinary, Colonel William Frederick Cody and was named in his honor. In Cody, we saw the Buffalo Bill Museum, containing many interesting relics of Colonel Cody and the local area. We greatly admired the Buffalo Bill statute, a magnificent work in bronze by the sculptress, Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney. The famous Cody road from Cody to Yellowstone Park is advertised as 50 miles of mountain grandeur through the valley of the north fork of Shoshone river. We climbed the side of Rattlesnake mountain along a walled road cut out of the solid granite and passing through five tunnels on the way. The almost perpendicular walls come close together in a deep, narrow gorge at a point where the Shoshone dam was completed in 1910 by the United States Reclamation Service. It furnishes power to the Big Horn Basin and irrigation to many thousands of acres of the lower Shoshone valley. The dam backs the water up both forks of the river for many miles and forms a large reservoir or lake. The rock formations along the road produce strange and weird sights. The so-called Kaiser's Face is a profile on the cliff just above the highway. The Playgrounds of the Gods are rough formations across the river. The Chinese Wall is a volcanic dyke which extends into the distance on either side of the highway. Holy City is castle-like rock shapes on the right-hand side of the road. Other odd forms behind it are the bear, goose and anvil rocks. The Devil's Elbow is a sharp cliff forming the foreground of Holy City and around which the river flows in an acute triangle. When we saw a sign "Henry Ford," we thought it was a dude ranch and did not learn until afterwards that it is supposed to designate and describe a rock formation. The Elephant Head and Chimney rocks were some of the strangest shapes of all. We had lunch at "Pahaska Tepee," Buffalo Bill's old hunting lodge in the Rockies. Buffalo Bill built his lodge in 1901 and gave it his Sioux Indian name, "Pahaska," which means "Long Haired Man." Until his death in 1917 he used it as a hunting lodge and a place to entertain friends, among whom royalty and the unknown mingled together. That memories of Buffalo Bill may become stronger and his niche in American life better understood, his grandson, Frederick Garlow, personally conducts a free museum where we passed a very interesting half hour.

See National Park.

We entered Yellowstone National Park from the east through Sylvan Pass at an elevation of 8559 feet. This is our oldest and largest national park. It was created by Act of Congress, signed by President U. S. Grant, March 1, 1872. It is located in the northwestern corner of Wyoming, encroaching slightly on Montana and Idaho. After being enlarged twice, it now has an area of 3472 square miles, or nearly 2,222,000 acres. The central part is a broad elevated volcanic plateau between 7000 and 8500 feet. Yellowstone abounds in wild flowers and 80 per cent of its area is heavily wooded with great forests of pine, spruce, fir and other varieties of trees. There are hundreds of lovely lakes and limpid streams. Yellowstone Lake is the largest in North America at so great an elevation. It is 7731 feet high, covers 139 square miles, has a maximum depth of 300 feet and has a shore line of 100 miles. There are about 3000 geysers and hot springs in the Park. Most of them are located in the six principal geyser basins.

Has Freak Springs.

Nearly the whole Yellowstone region is remarkable for its hot water phenomena. Yellowstone geysers are celebrated the world over for their number, size, power and variety of action. New Zealand, which ranks second, and Iceland, where the word geyser originated, possess the only other geyser basins of prominence and these two together do not equal those of Yellowstone. Old Faithful erupts on an average of once every 65 minutes. We waited 50 minutes to witness this wonderful natural phenomenon. The land around the geyser is nearly flat except as it has been built up by the mineral deposits. There are several logs lying around which have been worn smooth by people sitting on them. A few minutes before time for the geyser to erupt, a forest ranger comes out and gives a talk on the history of Old Faithful. We saw other geysers erupting and pools boiling and emitting steam as we drove through the geyser basin.

A. L. Gobalet and Olaf Morby have returned from a deer hunt in Nevada.

TO TAKE EXAMINATIONS

R. J. Rappaport, son of Dr. and Mrs. Walter A. Rappaport came up Saturday to visit his parents at Talmage for the weekend from Napa where he attends school. The young man is taking the examination for appointment at Annapolis and has already passed the physical examination.

VARIOUS TOPICS ARE DEVELOPED AT B. P. W. C. EVENT

Theme of National Business Women's Week, October 6-12, is "Women In The Role Of Voters," and it was along that line various members spoke at the opening all session of Business and Professional Women Thursday at the Palace Hotel. Mrs. Bess Eversole presided at the meeting, which opened with the singing of "America The Beautiful," led by Miss Laura Kaiser. The salute to the flag followed, and the gathering then repeated the elevating words of the collect, in union. Miss Audrey Hollenbeck spoke on the letter received by Dr. Minnie L. Maffet, head of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, from President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in which the president expressed approval of the theme selected for the week being observed nationally. Mr. Roosevelt commended the women on their choice of such a subject, stating no other responsibility of the American citizen is greater than that of choosing government officials. Mrs. Fern Busch reported on a letter from Wendell L. Willkie to Dr. Maffet, in which the Republican candidate congratulated the National Federation of Business Women, and extended best wishes for the success of this important week. Mr. Willkie mentioned his pride in the fact there are three generations of professional women in his family; his grandmother, who was a minister; his mother, who was a lawyer and business partner of his father; and his wife, who was a librarian. Mr. Willkie went on to state he was proud of the fact a woman, Miss Mary Sleeth, is business manager of his farms in Rushville, Indiana. He also expressed admiration for the wisdom and patriotism shown by the Business Women's choice of "Women In The Role Of Voters" as this week's text. Mrs. Bess Eversole itemized the personnel of the National Executive Committee, and Miss Violet Elliott gave a summary of distribution of members according to jobs; office workers heading the list of occupations, with a rating of 32.8 per cent. Mrs. Loretta Ornbaun presented a composite picture, of great interest to the gathering; it described the average single member and the average married member of the national organization. Miss Laura Kaiser developed the topic, "The Key To Success Is Hard Work," in which opinions of various women leaders as to what makes success, were outlined. All stressed the common formula—hard work. The entire meeting revolved around subjects of general interest, and was a stimulating beginning to the year of activity ahead.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

A recent party arranged by Robert and Allan Mills in their home on Park Boulevard, assembled a group of school friends to honor Paul Hughey. The occasion observed the birthday of the honor guest, as well as his election to the office of student body president of Ukiah union high school. The event was a surprise affair and guests convened in the darkened living room of the home, until Robert Mills ushered in the guest of honor, at which time lights were switched on, revealing the gathering. Cards were enjoyed throughout the evening, following a gift presentation to Paul Hughey, and at a late hour refreshments were served at a table centered by the traditional birthday cake. Present for the event were Paul Hughey, Keith Leonard, Frank Niderost, Pierce Lyons, Tom Tucker, Guy Starke, Junior King, Sidney Williams, Robert Mills and Allan Mills.

EAGLES AUXILIARY

President Mrs. Minnie Brown conducted the routine business meeting of Eagles Auxiliary at Steiert hall Thursday evening. A social hour followed, during which refreshments were enjoyed and a jackpot drawing held great interest. The name of Mrs. G. M. Ginochio was drawn, but since she was absent from the meeting, another drawing will take place when the Auxiliary next convenes.

SUNDAY BARBECUE

Hosts at a recent barbecue in the garden of their North State street home were Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Paddock. Invited to enjoy the pleasant Sunday afternoon affair were Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Paup, the latter's mother, Mrs. Redfield, and little Kenneth Paup.

COUPLE HONORED FRIDAY AT TWO EVENTS

Honors were divided Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rowland, the former being entertained at a stag party at the Peter Frey home, while his wife was given a delightful surprise shower at the Mill street home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Busch. With Mrs. Busch and Mrs. Frey acting as co-hostesses for the event, nearly a score guests were gathered to greet Mrs. Rowland when she was ushered into the home for what she thought was to be merely a social visit. The living room, attractive with bowls of mixed garden flowers, also displayed decorations of another type. On clothes lines arranged about the room were dainty articles which went to the honored guest when she "took in the wash." Delicious refreshments were served the gathering, and then the ladies adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frey to find that Mr. Rowland had fared well in receiving additional nice gifts. Honoring Mrs. Rowland at Friday night's affair were Mesdames W. Barr, Thomas Mercer, Harry Shimmin, Albert Towne, A. Stanley, A. Bradley, Harley Branson, Ben O. Foster, Dollie Wright, F. Rains, and Misses Elizabeth Ryder, F. C. Bull, Hulda Wenglein and the hostesses. Miss Clara Williams was unable to attend. The party at the Frey home, honoring Mr. Rowland, was made up for the most part of the husbands of the ladies who honored Mrs. Rowland.

NEW CLUB FORMED

A small Thursday afternoon club, just organized, met to enjoy hospitality of Miss Irene Sandelin last week. The fireplace in the attractive living room of the home burned cheerfully, shutting out the chill of an early October day, and creating a pleasant atmosphere for social hours. Sewing occupied the girls' time during the afternoon, which concluded with a dainty refreshment service. Members of the group, which will hold meetings at the different homes each Thursday, are Mrs. Evelyn Santos, Mrs. Jack Smith, Miss Arzelle Dennen, Miss Nadine Fraser and Miss Irene Sandelin.

CHURCH GROUPS MEET

In the lecture room of the Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon, members of the Presbyterian Missionary Society and Ladies Aid met in joint session. Routine business was conducted during the first hour, and then the meeting was turned over to a social time and entertainment, arranged by hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. C. W. Bradford and Mrs. George P. Anderson. A short play, "Information, Please," was first received with interest by the audience, and a charming song with appropriate words written by Mrs. Bradford and set to the lyric of "Maryland,' was afterwards sung by the gathering as a welcome to Mrs. Julia Shinn, who had for some time been absent. Mrs. J. J. Thomas, too, was acorded a warm welcome. The afternoon was a pleasant one for the 30 members assembled, and before its conclusion a dainty tea service was enjoyed.

HONOR NEWLYWEDS

Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips entertained Thursday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson, of Covelo. The event was a dinner party, and covers were laid for six guests at the charmingly appointed table, which had as centerpiece a beautiful bride's cake, baked by Mrs. Phillips, and served with ice cream at the dinner's conclusion. The honored guests were wed at Reno October first and Mrs. Henderson was, until that date, Miss Edna O'Farrell.

EPISCOPAL GUILD

The first fall meeting of the Episcopal Guild will be held Friday, October 11, at the home of Mrs. N. G. Buhn. Ordinarily the Guild assembles on the first Friday of each month, but Mrs. E. H. Benson, who was to have been hostess October 4, was, unfortunately, ill, making it necessary to postpone the meeting a week.

HAD WEEKEND VISIT

Miss Lucille De Hart went to Lucerne Saturday for the weekend, guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller (Marian Campbell) who were married in Ukiah last month and are now nicely settled in Lake county.

HOME SETTING FOR PRETTY WEDDING SERVICE

Candlelight and firelight combined to reflect softly on delicately toned floral decorations in the living room at the Potter Valley home of Mrs. J. J. Thornton Friday evening, when Miss Bonniebel Thornton exchanged wedding vows with Chaplin Williams at a service perfromed by Dr. R. A. Van der Las of the Presbyterian church, Ukiah. For the seven o'clock ceremony, the bride wore a bouffant type frock of palest pink net, and her pretty face was framed by a heart-shaped halo, from which fell a mist of veiling. Her old-fashioned bouquet was held in a quaint, lace paper frill, and tied with satin streamers in graceful lengths. Miss Lily Wulff, who arrived Friday from Berkeley to be her college friend's atendant, was gowned in delicate blue net, and carried a smaller replica of the bride's bouquet. With James Williams, brother of the groom, performing the office of best man, Cedric Thornton gave his only sister in marriage, while the Wedding March and appropriate selections were beautifully played by Miss Jane Babcock, talented pianist. The young couple, both descendants of pioneer Mendocino county residents, have wide family connections in the county and it was a large gathering of relatives that witnessed the ceremony and attended the informal reception following. Later in the evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Williams departed on a wedding trip, the bride was charming in an ensemble of rich black velveteen with smart fall accessories. Now at home in an attractive apartment at 703 West Perkins street, the young couple are receiving felicitations from many mutual friends.

FULL VACATION PROGRAM

Gone five weeks to the day was Mrs. Sarah F. Ryder who Thursday returned from a delightful sojourn in San Francisco. With her friend, Mrs. L. Mohr, at whose Seventh avenue home she was guest, Mrs. Ryder enjoyed a full program of activities while in the Bay region. Trips down the Peninsula to call on old friends occupied several days of the vacation and numerous visits were made to Treasure Island, where memories were stored away of a glorious Fair now ended. At the "All for Willkie" rally where party affiliations were forgotten and a huge gathering assembled to acclaim the Republican candidate, Mrs. Ryder heard Mary Pickford and Kathleen Norris deliver addresses. Also, when Mr. Willkie spoke at the Auditorium, Mrs. Ryder was among the audience of thousands who were impressed by the candidate's personality and ideas. In the beautiful Chapel of Grace at Grace Cathedral, the local lady was present at the wedding of Mrs. Mohr's granddaughter two weeks ago, and the reception following. In every way Mrs. Ryder declared it a wonderful vacation, as who wouldn't with such a diversified program of activities?

PLAN HALL CEREMONY

Main business of the Ukiah Grange meeting, at which Attorney Wayne P. Burke presided Friday evening, was discussion of plans for dedicating the fine new Grange Hall. Dedication exercises will take place November 1, and members are at work outlining a program for the occasion. Friday's business session was followed by several hours of dancing, for which Mrs. Ruth Cooper played the piano, and later 74 members present enjoyed a buffet supper of frozen salad, wafers and coffee. Chairmen of the entertainment committee were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hubbard, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. F. Salisbury and Mr. and Mrs. J. Beck.

TWO COUNTIES HELD RECENT C.E. MEET HERE

The recent Lake-Mendocino County Christian Endeavor meeting opened on an inspirational note, with the playing of "Christ Calls," theme song of the two-day convention. Music was supplied by an orchestra made up of Miss Ella Boyd, violin; Miss Olive Rice, accordion; Mrs. Ada Romer, piano; and Edgar Hill, trumpet. After the opening number, the congregation sang "God Bless America," while delegates marched, led by Lyle Carpenter bearing the American flag. Officially starting the meeting, Mrs. Ada Romer, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president. Rev. T. W. Matlock gave a dedicatory prayer and then words of prayer were spoken by Miss Julia Boyd; R. Edwards, of Lakeport, delivering a short response. Election of officers for the coming year occupied the business session in the morning hours of the conclave's first day. In the afternoon, Rev. W. D. Noble, of Covelo, held the conference, and gave the Saturday evening address, to follow the well-attended banquet, for which Rev. L. Howard acted as toastmaster. The Sunday Morning Watch, conducted by Miss Martha Grubb, State High School Superintendent, opened the second day of the meet, and in the afternoon, conferences held the attention of junior and adult delegates, who heard various addresses, which followed the general theme of "Christ Calls." Installation of officers by Regional Vice-President Charles Watson was held at 7:15 in the evening, and during the ceremonies a telegram of greeting was received from State President Raymond McGaha, of Los Angeles. Past and present presidential pins were received, presentation being made by Rev. Miller, of Kelseyville, and the meeting closed soon after awarding the rally banner to Rev. Leroy Howard of the Lakeport church, for having the largest delegation at this year's very successful conclave.

B. P. W. C. BANQUET

Enroute home from San Francisco Tuesday evening, Mrs. Grace Holzhauser and Mrs. Ruth Kington stopped in Santa Rosa to attend a dinner at The Occidental Hotel in Santa Rosa. Numerous members of Ukiah Business and Professional Women's Club were there for the occasion, which was a banquet to welcome Miss Goldie Waite, national field representative of the organization, who was making her official Redwood Empire visit.

CENTRAL P. T. A.

Friday at three o'clock Mrs. Albert O'Donnell and Mrs. Irma Frey will be co-hostesses to members of Central Parent-Teachers Association when they meet in regular session at the O'Donnell home. An interesting presentation of the theme, "Echoes from the California Congress of Parent-Teachers Conference," which was held at Arcata this summer, will be made by Mrs. Helena Johnson, who attended the meet.

TELEPHONE CLUB

The Telephone Ladies Club held its opening meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. H. Barker. The hours were devoted to scheduling bridge parties for the coming year, and to election of the following officers: Mrs. E. H. Barker, president, and Mrs. E. L. Montgomery, secretary-treasurer. Those who enjoyed the social gathering and dainty refreshments at the Barker home were Mesdames B. Shields, A. Hurlock, J. J. Williams, H. Thompson, A. Towne, E. H. Barker and E. L. Montgomery. Unable to be present were Mrs. A. McKinney and Mrs. H. Hanson.

"COAST TO COAST" WILL ASSIST THE MILK FUND

Just about ready for presentation is "Coast To Coast," diverting musical comedy which will be put on Thursday and Friday evenings at the high school auditorium. Romance, humor, and popular musical selections, combine to make the show excellent entertainment. It is being capably directed by Helen Blake Williams, of Kansas City, who is expert as a director of amateur and professional plays. Funds derived from the performance are to be used for the milk fund, a worthy cause, and it is to be hoped the public will buy tickets and attend the play which promises to be a success. Supported by a chorus of nearly 40, the following have leading parts: Harriet Mercer, Ina Tucker, Ella Butler, Beatrice Pearl, Peter Frati, W. H. Brunner, Arthur Bradley, Frank Zeek, L. D. Dennen, Fred Church, Gordon Sherman and Floyd Rowland.

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

Forty-seven years together—years that have passed in unselfish service to others — were marked Saturday by Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Van der Las. The anniversary was quietly passed at their Walnut avenue home, where, throughout the day, greetings were received from family members and devoted friends of the well-loved couple who were wed October 5, 1893, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where Rev. Van der Las at the time conducted services in Central Park church. Since coming here several years ago, Dr. and Mrs. Van der Las have held a warm place in affections of members of the Presbyterian congregation, who have beheld their untiring efforts to further projects of good to the church. Not limited, however, to those of their own faith, are their wide circle of friends, for noble and lovable characters find friendship knows no boundaries. Clubs and organizations of various kinds have called on Dr. Van der Las to join in their affairs, and to speak to them in his inimitable way. Not once, but many times, young people have come here from Oakland, where for years Dr. Van der Las conducted services, to ask he perform their marriages and baptize their children. All who know and esteem Dr. and Mrs. Van der Las joined in rejoicing with them on the happy occasion of their forty-seventh wedding anniversary.

P. T. A. PLANS

Ukiah Parent-Teacher Association is launching a membership campaign, plans for which are being organized by a committee headed by Mrs. Casper Squier. In November, the P. T. A. is going to start a drive for collecting rags, to be sold for funds which will be diverted into various helpful enterprises. Any kind or color of rags will do, and all donations will be appreciated.

SOON TO BE BRIDE

Miss Elizabeth Ryder, for several years a member of the faculty of Ukiah grammar school, and a young lady of great personal charm, has announced her forthcoming marriage to Bernard Fry, former resident of Redwood Valley, now living in the Bay district. The wedding will be in the late fall.

AT PARENTS' HOME

Miss Lorraine Pike passed the weekend visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. Pike, in Grass Valley. At the Pike home for a visit at this time is Mrs. D. E. Adams, of Salt Lake City, who is known in Ukiah, having been a guest at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Pike when they resided here.

CULTUS CLUB HAS BEGUN THE FALL SEASON

Colorful decorations of autumn fruits and flowers were used to grace the banquet tables at Pauline's Cafe last night, when another important local club resumed activities for fall. Cultus Club officers — Mrs. Katherine Harvey, president; Mrs. Louis Folsom, vice-president; Mrs. E. Mitchell, second vice-president; Mrs. William Mellis, secretary; Mrs. Hale Prather, treasurer, and Mrs. John Taylor, corresponding secretary—formed the committee of arrangements for the delightful evening. Each member responded to rollcall by relating a happy experience of the past summer, and the various accounts provided the evening's pleasant diversion. At the conclusion of the session, year books, outlining the program of events for this interesting coterie, were distributed.

Mrs. Louise Kellogg, who has been a patient in Howard Memorial Hospital has returned to Cummings, following a stay of a number of days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mersinger.

FALL SESSION TO START FOR KOSMOS

At the Municipal Clubhouse tomorrow afternoon, Mrs. Minnie Brown, new Kosmos Club president, will direct the first Fall meeting of that organization. Decorations have been chosen with an eye to the colorful season now at hand, and autumn leaves and flowers will beautify the clubhouse for tomorrow's event. With Mrs. Blythe Hicks in charge, the choral section is to present a program of vocal selections, appropriate to the subject of the meeting, which is "Music." Hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. Minnie Brown, Mrs. Bertha Zeek and Mrs. Harriet Corbett will preside at a charming tea service following the program.

HAVE RETURNED

Mrs. Angelo Poma, who has been in San Francisco at the bedside of her husband, who is recovering from a major operation in Stanford-Lane hospital, returned to her home in Calpella Thursday and was accompanied by Mrs. John Poma and daughter, Mrs. F. Bricarelli.

GIRLS ENJOYED A FIESTA PARTY AT CLUB HOUSE

Bright decorations of blue, red, yellow and green transformed Municipal Clubhouse into a Fiesta setting Friday evening when girls of the Yokayo Campfire Group arranged a joyful time for a number of friends and themselves. The Spanish theme dominated in gay table appointments and in games as well as refreshments, which consisted of Spanish beans, corn wafers and chocolate. Each girl had invited a guest for the evening and nearly two dozen were in the gathering which agreed, unanimously, the delightful hours from seven until 10 passed unbelievably quickly. Mrs. E. L. Chelli assisted the girls entertaining.

VISITED DAUGHTER

NOTED VISITORS TO ADDRESS CLUB MEMBERS

Interest will center Saturday in the thirty-eighth semi-annual convention of Mendocino County Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in Ukiah. The Saturday Afternoon Club, of which Mrs. Elmer Purdy is president, and Kosmos Club, headed by Mrs. H. W. Brown, will be hostesses at an all-day session, held in the Saturday Afternoon Club's rooms and featuring a program of music and addresses by distinguished guests. Mrs. E. M. Fish, county president of the Federation, will preside and respond to words of greeting by Mrs. Purdy. One of the main addresses of the day will be made by Mrs. Thos. H. Richards, of Chico, president of California Federation of Women's Clubs, and another honored visitor, Mrs. Verner L. Ronk of Santa Rosa, president of the San Francisco District, California Federation will speak. Mrs. A. C. Stolpe, state chairman of music, has an interesting topic to present, "Across America for Folk Tunes." A talk on "Beautification of Highways," will be given by H. Bana Bowers, landscape engineer and authority on conservation. For diversification of a musical type the Choral section of Kosmos Club has two numbers to present. Past District President Mrs. Walter H. Higgins will be numbered among honored guests. During noon hour a turkey luncheon is to be served at The Maple Cafe. This will provide a period of relaxation from the busy hours which will crowd the day from 9:30 a.m. on, at what promises to be an unusually brilliant conference.

Former Sheriff R. R. Byrnes was over from his Anderson Valley sawmill the last of the week.

MISS MARGARET BECHTOL IS TO BE MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bechtol have had as houseguest at various times throughout the summer, Elmer Presson of San Francisco, and last weekend when Mr. Presson again visited at the home, he presented the very attractive youngest daughter of the family, Miss Margaret Bechtol, with a beautiful diamond ring. In the presence of the immediate family the traditional engagement symbol was bestowed, and the young couple announced plans for a wedding to take place later in the fall. Miss Bechtol has a wide circle of friends in Ukiah, where she has lived all her life, and been educated in the local schools. She is a sister of Mae Meek and Avis Phillips and of Albert Bechtol. Her fiance was born in Seattle, Washington, and lived there until several years ago, when he came to San Francisco, where he is employed by a large electrical plant. Best wishes are being extended the newly engaged pair.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

To honor their charming president, Miss Ida Locatelli, whose engagement to William Joseph Bold was recently announced, St. Mary's Sodality members last night gave her a delightful shower. The affair, of which Mrs. J. Isnard and Miss Margaret Bordessa were co-hostesses, was held in the Isnard home, which had been attractively decorated for the occasion. Miss Locatelli received many beautiful gifts for the home she will occupy after her wedding October 19 at St. Mary's church. The ladies enjoyed a pleasant social evening, and the dainty buffet supper which concluded the affair.

MARRIED THIRTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. O'Brien last week passed their thirtieth wedding anniversary at their home in Ukiah where they received messages of congratulation from friends and relatives.

ATTENDED WEDDING

Miss Esther Redwine was in San Francisco Sunday and Monday. Sunday she attended the wedding of Miss Marjorie Harris and Bartow Van Voorhis in Berkeley, and Monday was devoted to business matters in the city.

Misses Barbara Scott and Kathleen Thurston were home from Junior College, Santa Rosa, for an over-Sunday visit at their homes.

COUNCIL MEET

The National Council of Catholic Women will meet in Ukiah Tuesday, October 15. Luncheon at the Albertinum will follow the first meeting of the day, which is scheduled for 11:00 a. m.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON CLUB HOLDS A GREETING MEET

Club rooms were prettily decorated with a profusion of mixed garden flowers arranged in attractive bowls and baskets, when 36 members gathered to start Saturday Afternoon Club fall activities. Mrs. Elmer Purdy presided at the initial fall session, during which members endorsed Mrs. Walter Higgins for state trustee at the county convention to be held in Ukiah Saturday, October 12. Year books were distributed and the ladies noted with interest program and committee arrangements for the coming year. Culminating business of the day, club members enjoyed a pleasant program, first hearing Mrs. Margaret Byrnes in two charming vocal selections, and next a travelogue in which Mrs. Olive Busch spoke entertainingly on shrines and memorials of America. Hostesses of the day were Mesdames Hugh L. Preston, Ray Walsh, Raymond J. Pearl and Miss Grace Toles, and the four ladies prepared and presented delightful refreshments at small tables where informal groups gathered to chat and exchange experiences of the summer.

IS HENRY PROUD?

Friends are congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bonnifield (Edythe Alameda) who are proud and happy parents of a little son, their first child, born Wednesday, October 2, at Ukiah General Hospital. Eight pounds five and one-half ounces was the weight of the little one at birth, and both he and his mother are doing nicely under the care of Dr. J. J. Kirwin, attending physician. Some prankster turned in the news to a San Francisco paper that Henry Bonnifield was the father of quintuplets and the paper appeared here with a heading to that effect eight-columns wide on the first page.

RUMMAGE SALE

A variety of articles are being offered this week at the rummage sale the Saturday Afternoon Club is holding in the Smith-Ames building, formerly occupied by the Empire Paint Company.

CAME FOR WEDDING

William Kehoe was here from Stockton last weekend to attend the wedding of Miss Bonniebel Thornton and Chaplin Williams, an event of Friday evening in Potter Valley.

THESE ARE MY JEWELS

The other day a young woman employed on one of the "projects" the Democratic administration has been fostering, threw a metal waste basket from a window into a crowd listening to Wendell L. Willkie speak. An innocent bystander, a young woman, was struck and badly cut about the head. In another instance eggs were hurled at the Willkie car, splashing the stockings and footwear of Mrs. Willkie. This is the product of the class-hatred that has been engendered and encouraged by the Administration for eight years. It is an animosity that is dangerous to court and has no place in the United States. No campaign is worth winning at the cost of ultimately dividing the people of this country into groups of hatred.

AMERICANISM IS CULTIVATED

Object Of Veterans Of Foreign Wars Commendable

The first of a series of meetings, directed by patriotic citizens of Ukiah, was held at Veterans Memorial building Thursday. The Veterans of Foreign Wars are sponsoring rallies to be held each month at Veterans building. The general committes membership is made up of members of all the civic clubs and high school and at Thursday evening's meeting, which was well attended, Jack Mason presided and Guss V. Wallach acted as secretary. Monthly rallies will be held.

The Coming Gatherings.

Future meetings will be held in high school auditorium, dates to be announced monthly. Organizations promising to take part in the gatherings, through their representatives are: Business and Professional Women, Bess Eversole; Lions Club, W. K. Davis; Rotary Club, C. A. Bernhard; American Legion, Jack Clark; Twenty-Thirty Club, Alex Thomas, Jr.; High school, Paul Hughey; Veterans of Foreign Wars sponsoring committee, J. R. Mason, L. L. Whitmore, Guss V. Wallach, E. A. Eversole and H. Runkel.

What Program Is.

The tentative dates each organization is planning to put on a program are: Veterans of Foreign Wars, October; Twenty-Thirty Club, November; Business and Professional Women, December; Lions Club, January; Rotarians, February; American Legion, March; High school, April.

Aim Is Patriotism.

The rallies are to be made instructive and patriotic, being non-political and it is expected the accepted duty of each of our citizens shall be that he or she attend each of these monthly meetings and that our high school auditorium will be filled to capacity, indicating Ukiah's great majority of people are interested and American-minded first, last and all the time.

The Next Meeting.

Next general committee meeting is Friday, October 11, at Veterans Memorial building.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, of Santa Rosa, were guests Sunday of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith.

Warden Duffy Fires Steward Tom Davis

Thomas Davis, who brought the food situation at San Quentin out of chaos and established one of the best systems of prison feeding in the United States at the big institution, was summarily discharged last week by Warden Clinton Duffy. The main cause of Mr. Davis' dismissal was he was not an Olsonite. Mr. Davis was enjoying a short vacation and while in this part of the state stopped off to call on A. R. O'Brien.

CAME FOR FAIR

Bob Rawles was in Boonville over the weekend to visit his family and to attend the Fair and Apple Show. He arrived from Berkeley, where he is a student at University of California, Friday, and returned to the East Bay Sunday night.

THEY ARE BUSY

James McFarland and Norman Buhn, Jr., who attend California Polytechnic College at San Luis Obispo, and are roommates, were last week initiated into the Aero Club, one of the school's organizations. The boys report a full program of study as well as extra-curricula activity, included in which latter is the swing band of which James McFarland is a member.

WISE KIDNAPPER

The kidnapper of little Marc de Tristan planned to collect the $100,000 ransom demanded from his wealthy parents on the highway near Ukiah. He intended to come through Lake county on the Ukiah-Tahoe highway from Marysville. The German barber probably knew Mendocino county was a section where criminals operate without fear of apprehension, likely having read of the escape of the murderer of Harold Rodgers, the highwayman who held up the Bank of Hopland, the kidnappers at Point Arena, and the murderer of Service Station Operator Newman.

Trout Are Biting On Garcia River

The trout season opened October first from the Garcia bridge to the mouth of the river and some fine catches were made the first day.

THE REGISTRATION

The total registration for Mendocino county for the coming election is 15,713.

F. D. Patton passed the weekend in Sacramento.

Blowout Of Tire Caused Accident

Ezra Titus and sons, Artie and Paul, and Mrs. Titus' son-in-law, A. H. Van Antwerp, all of Point Arena, had the misfortune to meet with an accident on their way to Modoc county for a hunt. They had just left Red Bluff, when they decided to go back and get some new tires. On the way back they had a blowout on a hill, and the car turned over. All escaped injury except Mr. Van Antwerp, who was taken to a hospital at Red Bluff where he received first aid. Stanley Titus went up and brought Mr. Van Antwerp home while the rest of the party continued on their way.

DEFEAT
Proposition No. 3

It would turn over to the Olson Administration full control of California's penal institutions.

The proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 3 was inspired by the John Gee Clark-"Red Kate" O'Hare conspiracy.

It is a peril to the public.

It would also empower each new Governor, through his influence with the Legislature to make such changes as would result in an unstable prison administration and make it possible to turn loose upon the public many unsafe, violent and vicious criminals.

This is evidenced by the fact that, since the present Governor began to meddle in prison management, strikes, scandals and breaking down of morale have followed each other in the prisons.

Unless the amendment is defeated, it will remove the old-time non-political management.

KEEP POLITICS OUT OF CALIFORNIA'S PRISONS

Vote No on Proposition 3

GAS AND ELECTRIC RATES

START USING THIS CHEAPER GAS AND ELECTRICITY IN OCTOBER

Once again each of the many services gas and electricity perform for you day and night will be done for you at lower cost.

In October a system-wide reduction in gas and electric rates will effect a saving of $5,000,000 annually to our customers. Gas customers will save $3,000,000 a year and electric customers $2,000,000 a year.

These latest rate cuts make it possible for you to enjoy more liberally the conveniences and comfort of modern gas and electric servants.

Through your increased use of gas and electricity since 1928, you have in a large degree made these reductions possible. Careful management with a continuous application of new economies and efficiencies in the Company's operations have likewise been important in lowering the cost of its service.

P. G. and E. RATES—BOTH GAS AND ELECTRIC—HAVE LONG BEEN AMONG THE LOWEST IN THE NATION. NOW THEY ARE LOWER THAN EVER BEFORE.

SAY MOUNTAIN HIGHWAY LONG INJURED LAKE

Plea Made Before The State Highway Commission Wins

NEW ROUTE FAVORED

Convict Camp Likely To Avoid Hopland Grade

Special Correspondence of The Press

HOPLAND, Oct. 8. Lake county had a strong delegation at the California Highway Commission meeting Friday in Oakland and Herb Jones, Lake county supervisor, who was spokesman for the group, delivered a most effective plea, urgently requesting major reconstruction of highways leading into and serving Lake county. Supervisor Jones stressed modern standard of alignment, grade, width and surface and because of his convincing appeal the commission promised an immediate survey and estimate of cost of highway route 16, which is the Hopland grade.

Wants Prison Work.

Supervisor Jones suggested a convict labor camp be established along this route and the commissioners promised to hold up the placement of an available camp until the survey and estimate is submitted at the next meeting of the Commission which will be held in Sacramento the latter part of October.

Sonoma For It.

The Lake county people are opposed to the Hopland grade route and have been making an appeal to the State Highway Commission at intervals many months back. In the fight for a new, or re-location of the highway over Hopland grade, the Lake county people have support of Sonoma county politicians, as that county, according to present plans, would, if the route is relocated, get a direct Lake county-Sonoma county road.

TO HEAR COMPLAINTS

Harry Lutgens, member of the State Personnel Board, will be here tomorrow to hear evidence in rating complaints which have been made by a number of State Hospital employes following recent examinations.

VALLEY LOSES A FINE CITIZEN

Death Of C. H. Clow Mourned By Whole Community

Special Correspondence of The Press

BOONVILLE, Oct. 8. — Report came to Boonville yesterday Jack C. Nichols, at one time a resident of Boonville, and who married a fine young Anderson Valley girl whom he deserted together with his two small children, was dead. The body was found after it had been in the water 10 days. Just how Mr. Nichols came to his death is not known. Deceased came into the valley several years ago and began operations in the apple market on a big scale. He failed and left many debts at the time of his disappearance. It is said Mr. Nichols had been married before he came here and had married again since deserting the girl he wed in this section.

Burial Of C. H. Clow.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, October 3, for the late C. H. Clow, at Green Mound cemetery, Boonville, at 11 a. m., with Father Ahern, of Elk, officiating. Eversole's Mortuary was in charge of arrangements. Pallbearers were I. C. Burke, J. M. Ginochio, Walter Day, D. H. Lawson, H. E. Tarwater and R. E. Brown. The floral offerings were many and beautiful and the large gathering of relatives and friends spoke of the high regard in which deceased was held.

The Sorrowing Family.

Mr. Clow leaves to mourn his passing his sister and life-long companion, Miss Elizabeth Clow, two daughters, Mrs. Margaret McAbee and Mrs. Ella Hogan, three sons, George E. Clow, W. F. Clow, all of this valley, and Carl Clow, of San Rafael. Among his grandchildren are Mrs. Walter Metzler, Hopland, G. E. McAbee and C. S. McAbee, Boonville; Marion C. Clow, Philo, Mrs. Wayne P. Burke, Ukiah, Mrs. Sid Cross and Wm. Hogan, San Francisco, John and Jimmy Clow, Philo, and 10 great-grandchildren also survive him.

Native Of Michigan.

Mr. Clow was born in Michigan January 7, 1855. He came to Anderson Valley as a young boy and has resided here since that time. Mr. Clow has always been active in work for betterment of his community and leaves a place hard to fill.

Came For Funeral.

Out-of-town relatives who were here for the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. William Clow, Mrs. Geo. T. Clow, Willits, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lyle, Mrs. Jefferson Smalley, Cloverdale, Mrs. June Ledford, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Ingram, Cloverdale, Mrs. Sid Cross, Wm. Hogan, San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Burke, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bell Mrs. Harold Halliday, Ukiah, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clow, San Rafael.

In New Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tuttle moved into their new home recently. They motored to Santa Rosa Saturday to complete their shopping for furnishings and are very busy getting settled. Mrs. Tuttle is the popular teacher of Indian Creek school and was a June bride.

Miss Donna Ward, recently graduated from a beauty school, was called to Point Arena this week to help out in the beauty shop there over a rush period.

Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Wallach were business visitors in Healdsburg Wednesday.

Was In Accident.

Miss Anita McMullen, of Leeds, Utah, is a guest at the J. T. Farrer home. She had the misfortune to be in a motor wreck near Richmond recently and sustained a broken shoulder and cracked arm bone. Mrs. Farrer is her great-aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Vallier and daughter, Miss Zoe, were Ukiah visitors Thursday.

Reported Improved.

Late reports from J. E. Wallach, who is in Oakdale for medical treatment, are encouraging. Mr. and Mrs. Wallach are guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rawles.

Ernest Fitch, is seriously ill at his home north of Boonville.—Later advice is Mr. Fitch died.

Cards are out announcing the betrothal of Miss Mary Gail Gleason and Fred Francis Heintz. Miss Gleason is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gleason, of this valley.

EXCITING ADVENTURE ON THRILL-SWEPT SPANISH MAIN

Errol Flynn, as "The Sea Hawk," leads his lusty pirate crew in a daring hand-to-hand attack on one of the galleons of the mighty Spanish Armada. "The Sea Hawk" will have its local premiere Sunday at The State Theatre.

Eureka Political Leader Stops Here

Ralph Bull, for years a political power in Humboldt county and long a leader in State Republican politics, was enroute to Sacramento Monday and stopped off and called on A. R. O'Brien.

HOW GOOD IS YOUR MOVIE I. Q.?

Since the halcyon days of Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., only one great star has been acclaimed for his rugged portrayals in adventurous films. Today Errol Flynn is world-famous for his myriad performances as the picturesque, swash-buckling hero. See how many of his past films you can identify by answering the following questions.

You Will Be Rewarded.

Ten pair of State Theatre guest tickets will be awarded ten persons sending in the correct answers and the best 10-word description of Errol Flynn. Judging of winners will be based upon correctness, neatness and best-fitting description. Tickets will be issued for Errol Flynn's latest picture and mighty epic of adventure, "The Sea Hawk," opening a two-day engagement next Sunday at The State Theatre.

Mail Them In.

All entries are to be mailed or sent to The Ukiah Republican Press. Winners' names will be posted at the box office of The State Theatre, wherein you may call for your tickets. All entries must be in not later than Saturday, October 12, at five p. m.

1. Erroll Flynn made his first great hit as the terror of the seven seas, hero of Sabatini's immortal novel.

2. In this stirring adventure film the famous battle of Balaklava of the Boer War was thrillingly reviewed.

3. In what exciting film based on Mark Twain's beloved classic of mistaken identity did Errol Flynn appear?

4. The title of this comedy with Joan Blondell speaks well for Flynn's own splendid physique.

5. Everyone recalls Flynn's breathtaking performance as the archer of Sherwood Forest who robbed from the rich to aid the poor. Do you remember the title?

6. No women were included in the cast of this great war film wherein Errol Flynn portrayed an embittered flight captain.

7. Flynn appeared opposite the screen's leading dramatic star as an adventurous newspaperman of the nineties.

8. Ann Sheridan and Olivia de Havilland appeared with Errol Flynn in a technicolor epic of the Old West.

9. In this exciting action-drama, Flynn portrayed an adventurous Union soldier who hid a precious gold shipment.

10. Write down the title of Flynn's latest and greatest film wherein he portrays Geoffrey Thorpe, the notorious swash-buckling pirate of the sixteenth century.

MACHINE DOES DARNING WELL

Home Laundry Takes Care Of Holes In Clothing

Jack O'Callaghan, proprietor of the Ukiah Home Laundry, is continually adding to his facilities the latest of which is a darning machine which he received last week from the manufacturer in Massachusetts.

Works Very Rapidly.

This machine does marvelous work in a jiffy and when it comes to darning socks can do as much as a half dozen women. It looks something like a sewing machine but uses coarse thread or yarn and can cross and criss-cross a hole almost like lightning and when finished the mended garment looks almost as good as new and there are no rough edges.

HAVE A DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Oden became the parents of a little daughter, weighing seven pounds, two ounces, at Ukiah General Hospital late Monday afternoon. Mrs. Oden, the former Orletta Haun, and the new arrival are doing well under the care of Dr. J. J. Kirwin, physician in attendance.

L. J. Scooffy stopped off in town a short time Saturday enroute to his Noyo river lodge after a visit of several days in San Francisco.

Mrs. E. M. Grilk accompanied Miss Patricia McLean on a week-end trip, which took them Saturday to San Francisco, where they enjoyed a visit with Miss Dorothy Grilk. From the bay region, the two ladies motored to Sacramento, where Mrs. Grilk saw her son, James, and Miss McLean visited her family.

Heard First-Hand Story Of Battles

Wednesday evening 14 members of the local 20-30 Club journeyed to Healdsburg to meet in session with club members of that city. Dinner was enjoyed and the gathering had the pleasure of hearing John Kallio, American-Finnish soldier who took part in the Russian-Finnish conflict, relate interesting war-time experiences.

LODGE 75 YEARS OLD

Birthday Of Coast's Organization Is Observed

(The Mendocino Beacon)

Saturday evening was an occasion of special significance for Mendocino Masonic Lodge, for on that evening it celebrated the seventy-fifth anniversary of its founding. The celebration started off with a dinner at seven o'clock when over 100 members of the Lodge enjoyed a feast.

Pictures Of Early Masons.

One of the interesting parts of the celebration was the exhibit of old pictures and documents. These again brought to life the persons and events of the years 1865-70. Pictures of Erick J. Albertson, the first Master of the Lodge and the man who built the hall, were on exhibition. Also a picture of William Heeser, one of the first officers and the man who gave the site for the building. Other pictures displayed were of James B. Rice, Silas Coombs, Richard Coombs, Isaiah Stevens and James Severance, all early day settlers and prominent in founding the lodge.

Faded Papers Shown.

Many original documents were also shown including the minutes of the first meetings, lumber bills for the building of the hall, the first fire insurance policy, the original deed to the Lodge property, and a number of others of great interest. Early day pictures of Mendocino and logging operations in this vicinity also elicited interest.

Personal Mention

Dr. Edward R. Miller has been appointed doctor for the Indians at Covelo.

Contractor Robert L. Becker was at Laytonville last week completing a contract for electrical installation he had in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bauer, of Covelo, have been guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mersinger the past few days, all visiting the Fair at Boonville Sunday.

A. R. O'Brien left last evening for San Francisco to attend a meeting of the board of directors of the Golden Gate bridge district today.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cummings, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ruppert, of Fort Bragg, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cowen .

Mrs. George Evans, accompanied by her mother, motored last weekend to Yountville and brought home her father, James Lambert.

Mrs. Harry W. Kemp was in from Blue Lakes Saturday afternoon. For a quarter of a century Mr. and Mrs. Kemp have sucessfully conducted Blue Lakes Resort.

Missing Pictures Sought By School

(The Mendocino Beacon)

A tradition has existed in Mendocino high school since its first class graduated in 1896; namely the giving of a class picture to the school. At present 40 pictures hang in the halls of the school, but unfortunately, a few classes are missing. Those missing are classes of 1913, 1924, 1925, 1926 and 1927.

If you happe nto have either of the missing pictures it is suggested they be sent the Mendocino school faculty so the series may be completed.

PERSONAL MENTION

Clarence Ganter, for years a deputy sheriff here, concluded his vacation and has returned to his post with the State Fish and Game Commission at the Mount Shasta Fish Hatchery.

John Haun, member of an old family of this county at one time operating a sawmill in Sherwood Valley and now employed in the Caspar woods, came over to pass the weekend with Ukiah friends.

Ben Byrnes, San Francisco lumber wholesaler, was here last week placing orders for lumber.

Mr. and Mrs. Whit Ham represented Covelo at the countyseat yesterday.

A REMINDER TO-

WATCH OUT FOR FIRE!

This is Fire Prevention Week. More than 10,000 lives are lost each year in the United States . . . more than $300,000,000 worth of property consumed—by fire! That's a frightful toll to pay for carelessness. And the only way to fight it is for everyone to check up on homes, business and farm premises, for defective chimneys, heating apparatus, and accumulations of rubbish . . . to be constantly watchful in the use of matches, gasoline and other fire-starters. "Tomorrow is time enough" won't work when there are fire hazards.

KEEP VALUABLES SAFE, TOO

Fire prevention naturally reminds us of our Safe Deposit facilities. The best place to keep valuables completely protected from fire is in a bank's vault. A box in our safe deposit vault costs as little as one cent a day.

IT DOES MORE WORK— DOES IT BETTER— DOES IT CHEAPER—

How?

● The new Ford tractor with Ferguson system and its wheel-less implements does more work because it has two-plow capacity, provides quick entry and finish, takes less than one minute to attach or detach implements (including row cultivator), insures against usual delays in wet grounds or rocky fields.

It does better work because it minimizes soil packing, maintains even depth of furrow, makes finishing your lands simple and easy, plows and cultivates steep hillsides and narrow places that now you do not even work with horses.

It does work cheaper because the absence of excess weight and its advanced design make for greater fuel and operating economy; its ruggedness and simplicity mean long life; its low first cost means greater savings.

So—see the Ford tractor with Ferguson system for yourself. You'll see things done you never thought possible on a farm! We'll be glad to show you any time.

You Get These Features At No Extra Cost

FALL MEETINGS ARE STARTING

Potter Valley Social Organizations Are Growing Active

Special Correspondence of The Press

POTTER VALLEY, Oct. 8.—Fred Meyer and O. W. Walton painted the halls and assembly room of the grammar school in cream color before opening of school.

Mrs. Lyle Minstreel passed the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sacks.

Mrs. Mary Burris returned Saturday from a visit of two days with her granddaughter, Mrs. Edna Maxey at Upper Lake.

Were In A Wreck.

Mrs. T. F. Liefrinck received word last week her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jensen, had been in an automobile accident but had escaped injury. Their car was badly damaged.

Club Meets Saturday.

The Ladies Progress Club will meet Saturday, October 12. The meeting date was postponed on account of the Boonville Fair.

Grant G. Grant recently took third degree in the Mason's Lodge at Ukiah. Mr. Grant passed the weekend with friends in Lake county.

Can Get About.

Johnny March has been up and able to walk around the house the last few days after seven weeks in bed on account of a fractured skull which he sustained during the hunting season when he was thrown from a horse.

Mrs. Phyllis Sewell, of Guerneville, was here from Sunday to Tuesday of last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Spencer.

Meet In Lakeport.

The sub-district meeting of Federated Ladies Aid Societies will be held in Lakeport Thursday, October 10, at the Methodist church. A luncheon will be served by Lakeport ladies.

Aid To Assemble.

The regular meeting of Potter Valley Ladies Aid will be held in the church parlors Thursday, October 17, at 10 a.m. A potluck luncheon will be served. The ladies will tack and also quilt some comforters.

Mrs. Mary Carner accompanied Mrs. Bird Frasier and Horace Weldon to Willits one day last week.

Plan A Frolic.

The P. T. A. held its first meeting of the year Friday with the new president, Mrs. Dorothy Smalley, presiding. Plans were made for the annual Halloween frolic at the grammar school. A called meeting will be held soon to make further plans.

Mrs. Bert Whittaker has received word her sister, Mrs. Maud Cowan, of Sacramento, has been quite ill the past week since having an operation, but is thought to be making a satisfactory recovery now.

Mr. and Mrs. John Treece, of Fellows, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook a few days last week. They were on their way home after passing a two weeks' vacation in Lake county.

Mrs. Clara Wegner is here from Oregon to pass the winter with her daughter Mrs. Robert Mills and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brush, of Ukiah, were up to visit at the home of their son, Lloyd, one day last week.

Mrs. Frank Lowe received word of the death of her brother, Ona Harp, of San Francisco, and left Monday to attend the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Liefrinck went to Point Arena to see Mrs. Liefrinck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jensen, Sunday.

Mrs. R. R. Ingels and Mrs. Lee Williams attended a party given Wednesday evening at Vichy Springs.

Jud Gowan went to Anderson Valley to attend the funeral of Henry Clow.

All At Boonville.

The past weekend was very quiet here in Potter Valley. Just about everybody was away at the Boonville Fair. The local high school band and orchestra, accompanied by their leader, Lawrence Record, went over Sunday to help entertain.

The local Farm Center booth won first prize. The exhibit was most attractive, being a relief map of the valley placed against a painted scene of the hills. The map showed the farms with the houses, orchards, livestock and so on in miniature. Our Grange booth won third prize and the Girls 4-H Club exhibit won first prize. Lloyd Brush won first prize with his sheep dog. Joe Raymond and Ralph Whittaker both won prizes with their stock horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Vaughan arrived home Sunday evening.

Watch Your Kidneys!
Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

CARS ROBBED

Three automobiles in a South State auto court were robbed Sunday night. The loss will run to several hundred dollars. No arrests have been made.

Oregon Editor Is Short-Time Visitor

Jesse A. Luce, veteran editor of The Marshfield, Oregon, Sun, stopped off in Ukiah Tuesday to call on A. R. O'Brien. Mr. Luce comes from a pioneer Southwestern Oregon family and knows his community as, probably, no other person does. He is a fluent and versatile writer and reflects all the glamor of the editors of country newspapers that has almost disappeared.

IS TRANSFERRED

W. T. McIlhany, formerly assistant manager at the Ukiah branch of Montgomery Ward & Company and for the past two years assistant manager in the Santa Rosa store, has been transfered to the Oklahoma City store.

GRAPE PICKING REPORTED SLOW

Redwood Valley Vines To Be Stripped During Week

Special Correspondence of The Press

REDWOOD VALLEY, Oct. 8.—The Redwood Valley Grange won fourth prize for its booth at the Anderson Valley Fair. There was strong competition at the fair and the $100 prize was not easily captured.

Robert Muir, Wm. Pitzer and Dave Berry left Tuesday for Modoc where they will pass several days hunting.

Visited Home Folks.

Miss Helen Kerr, of Santa Rosa, and Miss Phyllis Cromwell, of Healdsburg, were visiting at the A. D. Cromwell home part of Saturday and Sunday. The girls stopped over to see the Boonville Fair on their way back.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Simpson passed the weekend at Fort Bragg. The Simpsons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dunning.

Miss Edith Boyd attended the shower given Mrs. L. Grant, at Ukiah Friday night.

Back On Old Job.

After looking the situation over in Vallejo, Miss Albertine Berry, did not accept the position offered her and returned to her home in the valley and resumed her former position at Willits Ice and Soda Co. in Willits.

Completing The Job.

L. Barber is shingling the other half of the Grange hall which was not done last year.

Remembered Anniversary.

A happy group of friends formed a surprise party Tuesday evening and gathered at Guy Zimmerman's home to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The date was also the anniversary of the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman. Friends included in the happy gathering were Miss Ethel Hargraves, Carey Hargraves, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hargraves, Jr., of Ukiah, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jameson, Mrs. Tom Gullickson and daughter, Roselyn, Mrs. Ella Boyd and daughters, Julia and Ella, of Calpella, and the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Zimmerman. The guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman a beautiful silver tray. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake were served.

Picking Is Late.

Although very few grapes have been picked on the east side of the valley during the past week, it is expected picking will be in full swing during the coming week and many grape pickers will find excellent picking in the various vineyards as a fine crop is on the vines of growers thereabouts.

Both Had Operations.

Friends were sorry to hear of Jimmy Hargrave's sudden illness. Jimmie, who has been going to Davis, was operated on for appendicitis Thursday at Woodland hospital. Mrs. Eunice Anderson, of Talmage, cousin of Jimmie, also underwent an appendicitis operation in Ukiah Wednesday.

Had Many Diners.

A real celebration was enjoyed by many Finnish folks Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. R. Oman opened their doors to a large group of friends in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Waino Oman. Barbecued meats and a delicious feast was provided a large guest list.

BUTTER

Butter is an ancient food,
Historical records say;
Two thousand years B. C. 'twas used
By Hindoos of that day.

Butter was known before the Christ
To Scythians, Persians, Greeks,—
An article of sacrifice,
Old as Egyptian leeks.

Romans employed it as remedy
For injuries to the skin,
Also as ointment for the hair,—
Useful without, within.

In Scotland butter was burned in lamps;
Besides for smearing sheep;
But butter now means Vitamin D,
An essential food to keep!

not serious.

Working Man Victim.

James Payne, a carpenter helping build a sheep barn on the Harton ranch near Longvale, fell from the roof and broke his left leg Thursday. He was brought to Howard Memorial Hospital in the ambulance.

Bob Phillips has taken over the management of Bon's Cocktail Lounge.

Old Resident Sick.

W. C. Streeter, a pioneer resident of Mendocino county, is reported in a critical condition with slight hopes for recovery. Several years ago Mr. Streeter underwent a major operation following a long illness and he has never fully recovered from the ordeal. His children and other relatives have been advised and they make frequent visits to see their father.

Mrs. Margie Dunham, who passed the summer in Gravelly Valley, enjoyed several days in San Francisco before she returned home. She was present the last day of the Exposition.

Cold In Modoc.

Most of the hunters who went up to Modoc county have returned home. Some had very good luck and the balance merely a vacation. The big storm recently made camping out very uncomfortable and this is the excuse the unlucky hunters give as an alibi.

Took The Shots.

Students of both the high and grammar schools at Willits and Laytonville have been immunized from diphtheria by Dr. R. B. Smalley.

A Late Grass Fire.

The fire department was called out to extinguish a grass fire which got out of control south of town last week. It burned over quite an area but did not do any damage, according to Fire Chief Elwin Van Cleemput.

Mrs. John Duer has returned from a visit in the Sacramento valley and Bay region.

Attending Convention.

Supt. Roy Good left for Coronado, Saturday, where he attended a convention of school superintendents. On the way south Mr. Good attended another principal's meeting at Fresno.

Had Big Blaze.

Garberville had a $10,000 fire last week following a big explosion the cause of which is unknown. Two business houses were burned and a number of others had close calls. One place burned was Harold's Burl Craft Shop which is famous all along Redwood highway for its redwood burl novelties.

Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Nichols left last week for San Francisco with intention of making that city their future home. Mr. Nichols has been employed at Al's Redwood Club during the summer months.

Will Not Talk.

Everett Hoagan, an employe of the Helm Lumber Company, of Jackson Valley, was brought to Howard Memorial Hospital suffering a severe stab wound in the groin. A man known to Mr. Hoagan, but whose name he refuses to divulge or swear out a complaint against, entered his cabin at night and during the altercation which followed stabbed Mr. Hoagan and also beat him over the head.

Vandal Pt. Arena Boys Are Caught

Over in Point Arena a number of youths inclined to vandalism threw rocks through the window panes of the old high school building, recently purchased by John Pallascio. Mr. Pallascio made an investigation and got a line on the offenders who later confessed. The parents of the boys paid Mr. Pallascio $40 and thus saved their sons from prosecution upon a destruction of property charge.

INSPECTED HOSPITAL

Dr. A. J. Rosanoff, director of insitutions was at The State Hospital Friday. Dr. Rosanoff discussed plans for enlargements of the Hospital and went over the budget for this year with Superintendent Walter A. Rappaport, finding conditions at the Talmage institution in fine shape. Mrs. Rosanoff accompanied her husband.

of praise.

Much To Enjoy.

But time goes fast at a Fair, and there were more things to see, once the visitor got past the Willkie booth, richer by a Republican car label and lapel button; or perhaps your equipment came from the Roosevelt booth.

Excellent Stock Exhibits.

In the stalls was a variety of sights to greet one; poultry, cattle and animals too numerous to mention, but somehow best remembered are those tremendous Rambouillet sheep, buried in wool, and with horns that curled unbelievably, and the fat little red pigs, round as they were long, and that one lone tiny white pig who stood most all Sunday afternoon, happy and unconcerned in the middle of his trough—almost lost in it.

An Ideal Day.

It was hot Sunday, and everyone was heading for a place to rest and eat or drink, mostly the latter, during the afternoon. Every place that served refreshments of any kind was packed and proprietors and waitresses were rushed to extreme, but still there were the same smiles on every face—the same welcome that was found earlier in the day. And in the crowds, too, there was still the friendliness that made the whole occasion happy to remember. It seemed that everyone knew everyone else there, and families and friends asked each other if they had seen such and such a mutual friend; who was there from Point Arena, or Ukiah, or Mendocino, as the case might be, and advised each other how the mutual friend had aged or improved or whatever might have befallen him since their last meeting.

A Real Success.

Anyway, it was a grand three days; a tribute to all who gave time and effort to the making of it, and it was easy to see that county folks enjoyed with all their hearts the Fair that is so rightly named "The People's Fair."

Ukiahans At Fair.

In the passing throngs of county people at Anderson Valley's Fair and Apple Show Sunday there was a good representation from Ukiah. Just to mention a few that were seen—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ford at the "Hay Loft," waiting their turn for lunch; Mr. and Mrs. A. Pioda in their creamy Packard convertible, top down, enjoying the beauty of Sunday's weather. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Daubeneck were there, as were Attorney and Mrs. Wayne P. Burke, and at one point of the afternoon, among those waiting in line for refreshments were Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Stickney, also Paul M. Mathews. E. A. Eversole was greeting old friends, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dennen, H. B. Scott and Mrs. Jennie Colver attended all the features of the Fair. Harry Pressley, formerly of Ukiah, was up from San Francisco, having arrived Friday to enjoy the full three days. Mr. and Mrs. Newell Rawles were in a gathering, which included Miss Lena Balzarini. Miss Wanda Burke was taking an active part in the affair, and Mr. and Mrs. George McMurphy were over from Ukiah for the day. There were many more from here who acclaimed the County Fair and Apple Show a success; these are just a small percentage of local people who attended.

CLOVERDALE'S MAYOR IS DEAD

Banking Will Be Taught This Year

The public will be interested to note that, for the sixth year, the American Institute of Banking is to conduct courses here, starting Thursday evening, October 10, at 7:15, in the high school. Classes will be held in Room 315 and will be conducted by Attorney Irving M. Brazier. The complete accounting course of 56 hours instruction is open to the public as well as to all employes of Lake and Mendocino county banks. Those interested are advised to contact Bob Saunders, Bank of America, or Charles Shimmin, Savings Bank.

Father Valerian O'Leary arrived last week from Mendocino and will be the new assistant at St. Mary's church.

BUSY MAN TAKES OVER

Jerrold L. Seawell of Roseville, speaker pro tem of the State Senate, has taken off his coat and gone to work in an effort to elect Wendell L. Willkie as president. Seawell has been appointed manager of the Northern California Willkie-McNary campaign.

A big, rugged former railroader from Roseville, State Senator Jerrold L. Seawell, a Willkie-type man ,today is in charge of the northern California campaign for Wendell L. Willkie for president.

His Usual Way.

Tackling his new job just as he's tackled the job of earning a living since he was nine years old, the 43-year-old president pro tem of the California senate, took off his coat, rolled up his sleeves and went to work.

His Early Background.

When he was nine, Mr. Seawell's father died, leaving him to support his widowed mother and younger sister. He worked first as a grocery boy, then as a blacksmith's helper, a teamster, and then a railway fireman and engineer. He still holds his card in the Brotherhood of Railway Firemen and Enginemen.

Since that time, although he quit railroading for real estate and insurance in private life and politics, "Jerry" Seawell has remained essentially a laboring man. During his 12 years as a state legislator, first as an assemblyman and then as a senator, and since 1939 as president pro tem of the upper house, Senator Seawell has spensored and has championed progressive labor legislation.

Was A Democrat.

Like Wendell Willkie, Senator Seawell started his political life as a Democrat. He was elected to the Assembly 12 years ago as an independent, although he was a registered Democrat. Two years later as a Republican he was elevated to the Senate by the electors.

Always For Labor.

His progressive record in the legislature includes sponsorship of numerous amendments to the workmens compensation law, increasing weekly benefits and reducing time limitation before benefits become available, social security laws and old age pension bills.

Olson His Foe.

Because he believed in economy in government, Senator Seawell became the target for Governor Olson's purge when he ran for re-election this year. Nevertheless he was re-elected at the primary.

A Native Son.

Senator Seawell is a native son. His grandfather came to California during the gold rush of '49 and brought his family out the succeeding year. Jerry's father was clerk of Colusa county at the time of his death. His father was the first county clerk of Napa county. Jerrold Seawell was born on a Colusa county farm September 2—the same day of the month on which U. S. Senator Hiram W. Johnson was born. Senator Seawell was educated in the schools of Colusa and Oakland.

MERCER HOME HAPPY

Their first child, a little son, weighing seven pounds, four ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mercer, Jr., at Ukiah General Hospital Friday night. The birth was Caesarin, Dr. J. E. Grdner operating and both Mrs. Mercer (Elizabeth Squires) and infant are doing nicely.

ONEY HARPE IS DEAD IN CITY

Old Resident Of Hopland Passed Away Saturday

Special Correspondence of The Press

HOPLAND, Oct. 8. — Mr. and Mrs. Van Harpe, Jr., of Kelseyville, are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, born Saturday evening in Ukiah General Hospital. This is the only child in the family and the first grandchild of Mrs. Louise Sierck, mother of Mrs. Harpe. The child has been named Roger Allen. Dr. J. J. Kirwin was attending physician.

Went To Modoc.

A group consisting of Milo Zanolini, Lewis Harpe, Robert O'Day, P. Chiossi and Ernest Abert left Saturday for a deer hunt in Modoc county.

Died In Santa Rosa.

Talas Babcock,a former resident, of Hopland, passed away at his home in Santa Rosa during the past week. He is survived by a wife and several children in Santa Rosa and three brothers—Gus Babcock, of Hopland, Dean Babcock, of Redwood Valley, and Robert Babcock, of Talmage. Deceased was born and reared in Hopland, but since his marriage had made his home in Sonoma county.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Elliot and family, of Occidental, passed a recent weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Huntley.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gibson and family, of Burlingame, enjoyed the weekend in the home of relatives in Hopland.

At The Springs.

Mrs. Josie Remstedt is passing a couple of weeks at Wilbur Springs in Lake county, taking advantage of the baths and medicinal values of the well known waters of that popular resort.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Salinger motored to San Francisco Sunday where they will remain for a few days' visit.

Many Hoplanders At Fair.

A large group of motorists from Hopland took advantage of the excellent weather prevailing Sunday to visit the County Fair at Boonville, where a large attendance was reported.

Oney Harpe Dead.

Oney Harpe, a former resident of Hopland, passed away Saturday morning at his home in San Francisco where funeral services took place Monday. Besides his widow he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Frank Lowe, of Potter Valley, and Mrs. Eola Ring, of San Francisco, and two brothers, John Harpe, of Willits, and Van Harpe, of Hopland.

Is Very Ill.

Friends of Van Harpe, Sr., will learn with regret of his continued ill health. Tuesday morning he was taken to San Francisco to be under observation of specialists at U. C. Hospital a number of days. Sunday several members of the family motored to the Bay region to visit the patient.

Garden Club Party.

On the afternoon of October 16 the Hopland Garden Club is giving a public card party, the first of the season. The party will take place at Guild Hall Wednesday afternoon. Everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McConnell are enjoying a visit in the city, going down yesterday.
